

1979 Assembly Bill 858

Date published: May 9, 1980

CHAPTER 247, Laws of 1979

AN ACT to amend 174.055 and 174.056 (title) and (1) (intro.) and (b) of the statutes, relating to dogs for the deaf.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 174.055 of the statutes is amended to read:

174.055 (title) Exemption of dogs for blind and deaf. Every dog specially trained to lead blind or deaf persons shall be is exempt from dog license tax and every taxpayer person owning such a dog shall annually receive annually a free dog license from the local collecting officer upon application therefor.

SECTION 2. 174.056 (title) and (1) (intro.) and (b) of the statutes are amended to read:

174.056 (title) Dogs for blind and deaf admitted to public places. (1) (intro.) No person who is an owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent or employe of any place of public accommodation, amusement or recreation, including but not limited to any inn, hotel, restaurant, eating place, barbershop, billiard parlor, store, public conveyance on land or water, theater, motion picture house, public educational institution or elevator, shall may refuse to permit a blind or deaf person to enter or use any such accommodations when such if the accommodations are available, for the reason that such the person is being led by a dog specially trained to lead blind or deaf persons, if:

1337

CHAPTER 247

(b) ~~Such~~ The person has presented, for inspection, credentials issued by an accredited school for training dogs for the blind or deaf.

---