Date published: May 17, 1980

CHAPTER 321, Laws of 1979

AN ACT to amend 146.50 (9) (a) of the statutes, relating to instructing ambulance attendants on treatment for anaphylactic shock.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 146.50 (9) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

146.50 (9) (a) The department may arrange for or approve courses of instructional programs within or without this state as sufficient to meet the education and training requirements of this section and shall make ~~such~~ the courses available to the residents of this state and to persons holding a provisional license. The courses shall be free of charge to any person who holds an ambulance attendant license, an ambulance service provider license or a provisional license and who is employed by a county, city, village or town. If the department determines that an area or community need exists, ~~such~~ the courses shall be offered at vocational, technical and adult education schools in such area or community. Initial priority shall be given to the training of ambulance attendants serving the rural areas of the state. If a licensed ambulance attendant completes a course approved by the department on treatment of anaphylactic shock, the ambulance attendant acts within the scope of the license if he or she performs injections or other treatment for anaphylactic shock under the direction of a physician.
