

1983 Senate Bill 640

Date of enactment: April 23, 1984
Date of publication: April 30, 1984

1983 Wisconsin Act 325

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 27.01 (11) (d) and (e); and to create 27.01 (11) (f) to (h) of the statutes, relating to campground reservations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 27.01 (11) (d) and (e) of the statutes, as affected by 1983 Wisconsin Acts 19 and 27, are repealed and recreated to read:

27.01 (11) (d) Reservation applications. The department may accept reservation applications from residents and nonresidents beginning on the first working day after January 1 of each year.

(e) Early reservation applications. The department may refuse to accept reservation applications postmarked or made in person prior to the first working day after January 1 of each year or the department may treat these applications as if they were postmarked or made on January 7 and shall process these applications together with reservation applications actually postmarked or made in person on that date.

SECTION 2. 27.01 (11) (f) to (h) of the statutes are created to read:

27.01 (11) (f) Processing; generally. The department may give reservations for each year until the available reservation sites in a campground for a given date are exhausted.

(g) Processing; prior to January 8th. From the first working day after January 1 of each year to January 7, reservation applications shall be processed in order according to the date on which they were made and all reservations for a given date shall be processed by random selection. Except as provided under par. (e), reservation applications made by mail shall be treated as if they were made on the postmark date and shall be processed with reservations made in person on that date.

(h) Processing; after January 7. After January 7, reservation applications shall be processed in order according to when they are received. Reservation applications submitted by mail are considered to be received when they are actually received by the appropriate office of the department.
