1989 WISCONSIN ACT 63

AN ACT to renumber and amend 752.03; and to create 752.03 (2) of the statutes, relating to: creating an additional court of appeals judgeship.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 752.03 of the statutes is renumbered 752.03 (1) and amended to read:

752.03 (1) ~~There~~ Before August 1, 1990, there shall be 13 court of appeals judges. Three judges shall be elected from each of the 3 districts specified in ss. 752.13 to 752.17 and 4 judges shall be elected from the district specified in s. 752.19.

SECTION 2. 752.03 (2) of the statutes is created to read:

752.03 (2) Beginning August 1, 1990, there shall be 14 court of appeals judges. Three judges shall be elected from each of the 2 districts specified in ss. 752.13 and 752.17 and 4 judges shall be elected from each of the 2 districts specified in ss. 752.15 and 752.19.

SECTION 3. Nonstatutory provisions; court of appeals. (1) ELECTION OF JUDGE. Notwithstanding section 752.04 of the statutes, the initial election for the 4th judge for district II of the court of appeals shall be at the spring election of 1990, for a term beginning August 1, 1990, and ending July 31, 1995. Thereafter, the terms provided in section 752.04 of the statutes apply. At the spring election of 1990 in district II, candidates may file nomination papers for one seat only, and must specify on those papers whether the judgeship for which they are filing is for the 5–year term or the 6–year term. Notwithstanding sections 5.58 (2) (b) and 5.60 (1) (c) of the statutes, the candidates at the election in district II shall be designated on the ballot as follows: "For Court of Appeals Judge, 5–year term" and "For Court of Appeals Judge, 6–year term". Notwithstanding section 8.11 (3) of the statutes, a primary shall be held if more than 2 candidates file nomination papers for any of the judgeships in that district.
