1995 WISCONSIN ACT 28

AN ACT to create 753.40 and 755.20 of the statutes; relating to: court-ordered payments to crime prevention organizations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 753.40 of the statutes is created to read:

753.40 Contributions to crime prevention organizations. A circuit court may require a person violating an ordinance that prohibits conduct that is the same as or similar to conduct prohibited by state statute punishable by fine or imprisonment to make a contribution not to exceed the maximum amount of the forfeiture which may be levied to a crime prevention organization if the court determines that the violator has the financial ability to make the contribution.

SECTION 2. 755.20 of the statutes is created to read:

755.20 Contributions to crime prevention organizations. A municipal court may require a person violating an ordinance that prohibits conduct that is the same as or similar to conduct prohibited by state statute punishable by fine or imprisonment to make a contribution not to exceed the maximum amount of the forfeiture which may be levied to a crime prevention organization if the court determines that the violator has the financial ability to make the contribution.

SECTION 3. Initial applicability.

(1) This act first applies to persons who, on the effective date of this subsection, violate ordinances that prohibit conduct that is the same as or similar to conduct prohibited by state statute punishable by fine or imprisonment.

* Section 991.11, WISCONSIN STATUTES 1993-94: Effective date of acts. "Every act and every portion of an act enacted by the legislature over the governor's partial veto which does not expressly prescribe the time when it takes effect shall take effect on the day after its date of publication as designated" by the secretary of state [the date of publication may not be more than 10 working days after the date of enactment].
