Accy 3.03 Citizenship. Candidates for examination are limited to citizens of the United States or persons who have in good faith declared their intention of becoming citizens of the United States, and who are either residents of this state or are actually employed in this state.

Accy 3.04 Examination and re-examination. (1) A candidate who presents himself for the examination for the first time and who passes at least 2 subjects, and whose average of the grades of the remaining subjects is 50 or more, shall be credited with the subjects in which he has received a passing grade, and may upon application present himself for re-examination, in the subjects in which he failed, at any 3 of the 6 semi-annual examinations next following the examination at which he qualifies, provided, however, that if a candidate passes 3 subjects he shall be credited with the subjects passed, his grade in the remaining subject notwithstanding.

(2) If on his first examination the candidate passes all subjects or on re-examination, the candidate passes the subjects in which he failed or did not receive credit, he shall be eligible for the C. P. A.

Register, May, 1968, No. 149

certificate, provided, he has met the other requirements of the law and these regulations.

(3) A candidate who fails in the remaining three trials to receive passing grades in the remaining subjects, shall revert to the status of a new applicant, and will be required to write all subjects in the event he again is a candidate, provided however, that if the candidate shall have but one subject remaining after his fourth trial, and shall have received a grade of 60 or better in that subject on his last examination, he may have one more trial to pass that remaining subject before he reverts to the status of a new applicant.

(4) A candidate who at his first examination or at any re-examination passes 2 subjects, but whose average of the grades of the remaining subjects, is less than 50, will not receive credit for the subjects passed, and he will be required to write all subjects as a new candidate.

(5) A candidate who has failed to receive a passing grade in at least one subject may not present himself for re-examination until at least one examination shall have intervened following his last examination or re-examination.

(6) A candidate's status ceases if he absents himself more than 2 successive examinations after writing his first examination. If he desires to become a candidate at some future date, it must be on the basis of a new application. Provided, however, that the absence of a candidate while serving in the armed forces of the United States government and for 6 months thereafter will not be regarded as an absence under this provision.
