REB 2

REB 2.02 Examinations. (1) WRITTEN EXAMINATIONS. Each applicant for a broker's or salesperson's license shall be required to read and write a comprehensive examination in English, testing that person's competency to transact the business of a real estate broker or salesperson. The examination shall be in conformity with s. 452.05, Stats., as applicable, and shall consist of 2 parts.

(a) Uniform part measures knowledge and skills relevant to the general practices and principles of real estate that are common to or "uniform" among all licensing jurisdictions.

(b) State part contains questions dealing with real estate laws, rules, and regulations, and other aspects of real estate practices appropriate to the state of Wisconsin.

(2) COMPETENCY. The grade of 75 or above on both parts may be evidence of competency and a grade below 75 in either part shall be proof of incompetency. To pass the examination, applicants shall pass both parts. An applicant for examination, for the first time, who passes one part shall be conditionally credited with the part on which the passing grade was received, and may, upon application, be re-examined on the part failed at any of the 6 examinations immediately following the examination on which the applicant did not pass on both parts. A person who does not pass the part retaken at one of the 6 examinations immediately following the examination on which the applicant did not pass on both parts shall revert to the status of a new applicant, and will be required to rewrite both parts, if reapplication is made. In addition to a grade of 75, the board may, in its discretion, require further supplemental proof of competency. In all cases, the grade below 75 received on the written examination shall be controlling on the question of competency and cannot be supplemented by other proof.

(3) TRUSTWORTHINESS. In addition to the written examination, applicants for brokers' or salesmen's licenses may be required to answer oral interrogatories relating to their general background and experience, insofar as they bear on the applicant's trustworthiness.

(4) WRITTEN EXAMINATIONS WAIVED. (a) Change of salesperson's status. Any salesperson who wishes to transfer employment from one licensed broker to another must submit a transfer application accompanied by the usual fee and in addition, at the discretion of the board, attach a written recommendation from the salesperson's former employer, asserting trustworthiness and competency of the employe. The transfer application does not require a written examination prior to transfer.

(b) Armed forces. Individuals previously licensed as salesmen or brokers under this board, but who have not been the holder thereof during the calendar year immediately preceding the date of such application, because of service in the armed forces of the United States of America, must make application to the board to be licensed in their previous capacity, to wit: as a salesman or broker, respectively, within 6 months from the date of discharge or separation of such applicant from active military service and such application shall be granted to such individual upon payment of the usual fee, without written examination, subject to proof of trustworthiness.

(5) ORAL EXAMINATION. (a) Upon filing the application in proper form, and paying the proper fee pursuant to ss. 452.05 and 452.06, Stats., an applicant may be given an oral exam pursuant to s. 452.05 (2) (b), provided that the applicant shall produce a statement by a duly licensed Wisconsin physician on a form to be prescribed by the board which certifies that:

1. The applicant has been examined by said physician within 30 days of the date of said application; and

2. The applicant is unable to fairly compete in a written examination because of a physical handicap that impairs the applicant's ability to write.

(b) The board shall pass upon each request for an oral examination and shall grant it unless good cause is shown why it should be denied. If denied, the board shall advise the applicant in writing of the reasons for said denial. The applicant may appeal the denial.

(c) If the application for oral examination is granted, the applicant shall be notified in writing of the time and place for said examination.

(d) The contents of the oral examination shall be determined by the board and shall be substantially equivalent to the contents of the written examination.

(e) The oral examination shall be conducted by a member of the board or a member of the staff designated by the board.

(f) The questions and answers shall be taken in shorthand or on tape and preserved as confidential records of the board. The applicant and/or his representative shall, upon a showing of good cause, have access to the applicant's records.

(g) The board members or a member of the staff shall review the transcript of the examination and shall determine upon standards set by the board whether an applicant is competent to receive a real estate license. Competency shall be based on a grade of 75 or above. The provisions of REB 2.02 (2), (3) and (4) as well as the provisions of s. 452.05 (2), Stats., shall be controlling in determining the standards of competency.

(h) Copies of the examination or the transcript shall not be available for inspection by anyone except that the board shall, upon a showing of good cause, authorize only the applicant or his representative to review the transcript. In the event the applicant is blind the board may authorize another person to accompany the applicant provided said person is not a potential applicant or instructor in real estate.
