ER-Pers 3.01 Definitions. (1) ALLOCATION. Allocation means the initial assignment of a position to the appropriate class by the administrator as provided in s. 230.09 (2), Stats.

(2) REALLOCATION. Reallocation means the assignment of a position to a different class by the administrator as provided in s. 230.09 (2), Stats., based upon:

- (a) A change in concept of the class or series;
- (b) The creation of new classes;
- (c) The abolishment of existing classes;
- (d) A change in the pay range of the class;
- (e) The correction of an error in the previous assignment of a position;
- (f) A logical change in the duties and responsibilities of a position; or
- (g) A change in the level of accountability of a position such as that resulting from a reorganization when the change in level of accountability is the determinant factor for the change in classification.

(3) RECLASSIFICATION. Reclassification means the assignment of a filled position to a different class by the administrator as provided in s. 230.09 (2), Stats., based upon a logical and gradual change to the duties or responsibilities of a position or the attainment of specified education or experience by the incumbent.

(4) REGRADE. A regrade means the determination of the administrator under s. 230.09 (2) (d), Stats., that the incumbent of a filled position which has been reallocated or reclassified should remain in the position without opening the position to other candidates.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1972, No. 202, eff. 11-1-72; am. (2) (g), Register, September, 1975, No. 237, eff. 10-1-75; renum. from Pers 3.02 and am. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81; am. (2) (f), (3) and (4), Register, February, 1983, No. 326, eff. 3-1-83.

ER-Pers 3.015 Regrading provisions. (1) Regrading of incumbents shall be done on a non-discriminatory basis.

(2) Incumbents of filled positions which will be reallocated or reclassified may not be regraded if:

- (a) The appointing authority has determined that the incumbent's job performance is not satisfactory;

ER-Pers 3

(b) The incumbent has not satisfactorily attained specified training, education or experience in a position identified in a classification series where the class levels are differentiated on this basis; or

(c) The administrator determines that the position should be filled by competitive examination under s. 230.15 (1), Stats.

(3) Incumbents of filled positions which will be reclassified or reallocate under s. ER-Pers 3.01 (2) (f) or (g) may not be regraded while the incumbent is serving the first 6 months of a trial or probationary period. Such employe shall also have performed the permanently assigned duties and responsibilities for a minimum of 6 months. The latter 6 month period may include a portion of the trial or probationary period.

ER-Pers 3.02 Establishing the classification of a position. (1) After an appointing authority has made budgetary provisions for a new position and desires to fill the position, a written description of the position's duties and responsibilities and any other pertinent information as required shall be submitted to the administrator.

(2) The administrator shall then allocate the position under s. 230.09 (2) (a), Stats.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1972, No. 202, eff. 11-1-72; renum. from Pers 3.01 and am., Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

ER-Pers 3.03 Changing the classification of a position. (1) Appointing authorities shall notify the administrator of any changes in the duties or responsibilities of individual positions which may affect the classification level of the position. Notification shall be in accordance with the procedures established by the administrator.

(2) All requests for classification actions which are not specifically delegated to appointing authorities must be reviewed and a specific class recommended by the appointing authority prior to a review by the administrator, except in those cases where the action is initiated by the administrator.

(3) When a non-delegated reclassification request, submitted in writing by an employe, is not recommended for approval by the appointing authority, the employe shall be so notified in writing by the appointing authority. If the incumbent feels that the decision of the appointing authority is incorrect, the incumbent may submit to the appointing authority a written request for review by the administrator. Such requests shall be forwarded to the administrator by the appointing authority along with a copy of the written notice to the employe and any other pertinent materials. The administrator shall review the action and make the final decision, notifying both the employe and the appointing authority of the result in writing.

(4) Requests for reallocation, reclassification or regrade are cancelled when an employe resigns, retires or is terminated from pay status in the position prior to the effective date of the requested action. The effective
