

Chapter Pers 25

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Pers 25.01 Establishment of procedure Pers 25.02 Limitation of application

Pers 25.01 Establishment of procedure. Recognizing the value of a formal grievance procedure in a sound management program, each department shall, as required by the director, establish a written grievance procedure. Such procedure shall meet standards established by the director.

Note: Chapter 196, laws of 1977 vested authority in the secretary, department of employment relations, rather than the administrator, division of personnel, to promulgate rules providing the minimum requirements of a grievance procedure. Despite this statutory change, Pers 25.01 shall remain in effect until the secretary acts to repeal this rule.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1972, No. 202, eff. 11-1-72.

Pers 25.02 Limitation of application. Grievance procedures established as provided in this section will not be used in lieu of procedures established elsewhere for actions described in ss. 16.05 (1) and (3) or 16.28 (1), Stats.

Note: Chapter 196, laws of 1977 vested authority in the secretary, department of employment relations, rather than the administrator, division of personnel to promulgate rules governing the scope of the grievance procedure. Despite this statutory change, Pers 25.02 shall remain in effect until the secretary acts to repeal this rule.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1972, No. 202, eff. 11-1-72.