

spection by a department representative for a minimum of 2 years. The records shall contain:

a) The vinyl chloride content found in all the samples required in subpar. b.1) and 2), identified by the resin type and grade and the time and date of the sample, and

b) The corresponding quantity of polyvinyl chloride resin processed by the stripper or strippers identified by the resin type and grade and the time and date it represents.

c. The owner or operator shall include in the report a record of the emissions from each reactor opening for which an emission limit is prescribed in par. (f)1.b. Emissions shall be determined in accordance with par. (i)7.e., except that emissions for each reactor are to be determined. For a reactor that is also used as a stripper, the determination may be made immediately following the stripping operation.

(m) Recordkeeping. The owner or operator of any source subject to this subsection shall retain the information specified in this paragraph at the source and make it available for inspection by a department representative for a minimum of 2 years.

1. A record of the leaks detected by the vinyl chloride monitoring system, as required by par. (g) 2.h., including the concentrations of vinyl chloride measured, analyzed, and recorded by the vinyl chloride detector, the location of each measurement and the date and approximate time of each measurement.

2. A record of the leaks detected during routine monitoring with the portable hydrocarbon detector and the action taken to repair the leaks, as required by par. (g)2.h.

3. A record of emissions measured in accordance with par. (j).

4. A daily operating record for each polyvinyl chloride reactor, including pressure and temperatures.

(7) INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE. (a) Code of federal regulations. The federal regulations or appendix materials in effect on June 30, 1983 listed in this paragraph are incorporated by reference in the corresponding subsections of this section. Copies of these materials are available for inspection in the offices of the department of natural resources, secretary of state and revisor of statutes, Madison, Wisconsin or may be purchased for personal use from the superintendent of documents, U.S. government printing office, Washington D.C. 20402.
