Note: Chapter Pers 14 was renumbered Chapter ER-Pers 14, effective March 1, 1983.

ER-Pers 14.01 Definition. Promotion means the permanent appointment of an employe with permanent status in class to a different position in a higher class than the highest position currently held in which the employe has permanent status in class.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1972, No. 202, eff. 11-1-72; am. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81; am. Register, February, 1983, No. 326, eff. 3-1-83.

ER-Pers 14.015 Policy. Promotional appointments shall be made so as to contribute to a competent and balanced workforce.

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

ER-Pers 14.02 Exclusions. (1) The appointment of an employe to a different position in a higher classification while the employe is serving a probationary period on an original or promotional appointment shall be considered a new original appointment or new promotional appointment respectively.

(2) The appointment of a former employe who previously had permanent status in class to a position in a higher classification than the employe's former class, after a break in service not covered by leave, shall be considered an original appointment.

(3) For provisions relating to the appointment of persons or employes to positions classified as trainee, see s. ER-Pers 6.12.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1972, No. 202, eff. 11-1-72; am. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

ER-Pers 14.03 Kinds of promotion; status and rights. (1) PROMOTION WITHIN THE SAME AGENCY. In accordance with s. 230.28 (1) Stats., the promoted employe shall be required to serve a probationary period. At any time during this period the appointing authority may remove the employe from the position to which the employe was promoted without the right of appeal and shall restore the employe to the employe's former position or a similar position and former rate of pay, as determined under s. ER-Pers 29.03 (6). Any other removal, suspension without pay, or discharge during the probationary period shall be subject to s. 230.44 (1) (c), Stats. If the position to which the employe has restoration rights has been abolished, the employe shall be given consideration for any other vacant position in the same or counterpart pay range for which the employe is determined to be qualified by the appointing authority to perform the work after being given the customary orientation provided for newly hired workers. If no such vacant position exists, the employe shall be treated as if he or she had been restored to the position held prior to promotion and the provisions for making layoffs under ch. ER-Pers 22 shall apply.

(2) PROMOTION BETWEEN AGENCIES. In accordance with s. 230.28 (1), Stats., the promoted employe shall be required to serve a probationary period. At any time during this period the appointing authority may dismiss the promoted employe from the service without the right of appeal. See s. 230.28 (3), Stats., for provisions relating to reinstatement eligibility of an employe so dismissed.
