

Chapter Med 2

TEMPORARY LICENSE TO PRACTICE MEDICINE
AND SURGERY UNDER S. 448.04(1)(b)1, STATS. ("TEMPORARY LICENSE PRIOR TO REGULAR LICENSE")

Med 2.01 Authority and purpose.	Med 2.03 Fees.
Med 2.02 Applications, credentials, eligibility, and issuance.	Med 2.04 Expiration. Med 2.05 No renewal provision.

Note: Chapter Med 2 as it existed on October 31, 1976 was repealed and a new chapter Med 2 was created effective November 1, 1976.

Med 2.01 Authority and purpose. The rules in this chapter are adopted by the medical examining board pursuant to the authority delegated by ss. 15.08 (5), 227.11, and 448.40, Stats., and govern application for, and issuance of, temporary license to practice medicine and surgery as provided in s. 448.04 (1) (b) 1, Stats., (hereinafter "temporary license prior to regular license").

History: Cr. Register, October, 1976, No. 250, eff. 11-1-76; correction made under s. 13.93 (2m) (b) 7, Stats., Register, May, 1989, No. 401.

Med 2.02 Applications, credentials, eligibility, and issuance. An applicant who is a graduate of a medical school in this state, or of whom the board will require no further examination under the provisions of s. Med 1.06 (3), may make application to the board for temporary license prior to regular license to practice medicine and surgery. In either case, such applicant shall have submitted to the board the application and documents required under ch. Med 1 for regular license to practice medicine and surgery, and shall in addition submit to the board an application for temporary license prior to regular license on forms provided for that purpose by the board. Such application shall be made not less than 30 days prior to the date set by the board for the holding of its next examinations for regular licensure. The application and required documents for regular license to practice medicine and surgery and the application for temporary license prior to regular license will be reviewed by 2 officers of the board. In the case of an applicant of whom the board will require no further written examination, upon the finding of such 2 officers of the board that such applicant is qualified for regular license except for having taken and passed the oral examination required under s. Med 1.06, the board, acting through such 2 officers, may issue a temporary license prior to regular license to practice medicine and surgery to such applicant. In the case of an applicant who is a graduate of a medical school in this state, upon the finding of such 2 officers of the board that such applicant is eligible for admission to examination for regular license under s. Med 1.06, the board, acting through such 2 officers, may issue a temporary license prior to regular license to practice medicine and surgery to such applicant.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1976, No. 250, eff. 11-1-76.

Med 2.03 Fees. The required fees must accompany the application, and all remittances must be made payable to the Wisconsin medical examining board.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1976, No. 250, eff. 11-1-76.

Register, May, 1989, No. 401

Med 2

Med 2.04 Expiration. A temporary license prior to regular license to practice medicine and surgery granted under this chapter shall expire by its terms 60 days after the next examination for regular license is given by the board, or on the date following the examination of an applicant therefor on which the board grants or denies such applicant a regular license to practice medicine and surgery, whichever occurs first; but temporary license prior to regular license to practice medicine and surgery shall automatically expire on the first day the board begins its examination of applicants for regular license to practice medicine and surgery after issuing such license, unless its holder submits to examination on such date.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1976, No. 250, eff. 11-1-76.

Med 2.05 No renewal provision. A temporary license prior to regular license to practice medicine and surgery shall be issued only once to the same person.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1976, No. 250, eff. 11-1-76.