DOC 303.03 Lesser included offenses. (1) If one offense is a lesser included offense of another, then if an inmate is charged with the greater offense, the inmate is deemed to be charged with the lesser included offense as well.

(2) An inmate may be found guilty of a lesser included offense of the offense charged, even if he or she was not expressly charged with the lesser included offense.

(3) An inmate may not be found guilty of 2 offenses or punished for 2 offenses based on a single incident if one offense is a lesser included offense of the other.

(4) No offense may be considered a lesser included offense of another unless it is so listed in the following table:

(5) After each note to a substantive offense under this chapter, all of offenses which are lesser included offenses of the offense are listed, except that aiding and abetting, attempt, and conspiracy are not listed. They are always lesser included offenses of the completed offense.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80; am. (4), Register, April, 1985, No. 352, eff. 5-1-85.

DOC 303.04 Definitions relating to state of mind. In this chapter, these words have the following meanings:

(1) "Intentionally" means that the inmate had a purpose to do the thing or cause the result specified, or believed that his or her act, if successful, would cause the result specified.

(2) "Knowingly" means only that the inmate believes that the specified fact exists.

(3) "Recklessly" means that the inmate did an act or failed to do an act and thereby created a situation of unreasonable risk that another might be injured. The act or failure to act must demonstrate both a conscious disregard for the safety of another and a willingness to take known chances of perpetrating an injury.

(4) "Negligently" means that the inmate did an act or failed to do an act and thereby failed to exercise that degree of care appropriate for the circumstances.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80.

DOC 303.05 Defenses. The following, if established by clear and convincing evidence, to the satisfaction of the committee, by the inmate, are complete defenses to alleged violations of the sections under this chapter.

(1) MENTAL INCAPACITY. At the time of the conduct, the inmate, as a result of mental disease or defect, lacked substantial capacity either to appreciate the wrongfulness of the conduct or to conform his or her conduct to the sections.

(2) INVOLUNTARY INTOXICATION. At the time of the conduct, the inmate, as a result of involuntary intoxication, lacked substantial capacity either to appreciate the wrongfulness of the conduct or to conform his or her conduct to the rules. This section does not afford a defense if the intoxicant was taken voluntarily.

(3) MISTAKE. The inmate honestly erred (except an error regarding the contents of this chapter), and such error negates the existence of a state of mind essential to the offense.

(4) SELF-DEFENSE. An inmate may use the minimum amount of force necessary to prevent death or bodily injury to himself or herself. An inmate may never use force which may cause death to another in exercising the privilege of self-defense. An inmate may never use a weapon in exercising the privilege of self-defense. An inmate may not continue to exercise the privilege of self-defense after an order to stop. In determining whether the minimum force was used in exercising the privilege of self-defense, staff should consider:

(a) Whether a weapon was used by the aggressor;

(b) The size of the inmates;

(c) The opportunity of the inmate who claims self-defense to flee or get assistance from a staff member; and

(d) Whether staff members were nearby.

(5) ORDERS. An inmate may disobey a rule if he or she is expressly authorized to disobey it by a staff member.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80.

DOC 303.06 Attempt. (1) An inmate is guilty of attempt to violate a rule if the following are all true:

(a) The inmate intended to do something which would have been a rule violation; and

(b) The inmate did acts which showed that he or she intended to violate the rule at that time.

(2) The number used for attempts in recordkeeping and conduct reports shall be the offense's number plus the suffix A.

Note: Example: Battery is DOC 303.12. Attempted battery is DOC 303.12-A.

Register, April, 1990, No. 412

(3) The penalty for an attempt may be the same as for the completed offense. See Table, DOC 303.84.

(4) An inmate may be charged with both a substantive offense and attempt to commit that offense, based on the same incident, but may be found guilty of only one.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80.

DOC 303.07 Aiding and abetting. (1) If an inmate intentionally does any of the following things, he or she is guilty of aiding and abetting a rule violation:

- (a) Tells or hires another inmate to commit a rule violation;
- (b) Assists another inmate, prior to a rule violation, in planning or preparing for it, with intent that the offense be committed;
- (c) Assists another inmate during commission of an offense, whether or not this was planned in advance; or
- (d) Destroys evidence of an offense committed by another person or otherwise helps to prevent discovery of a violation or of who committed it.

(2) The number used for aiding and abetting in record keeping and conduct reports shall be the offense's number plus the suffix B.

Note: Example: Battery is DOC 303.12. Aiding and abetting a battery is DOC 303.12-B.

(3) An inmate may be charged with both a substantive offense and aiding and abetting that offense, based on the same incident, but he or she may be found guilty of only one.

(4) An inmate may be charged and found guilty of aiding an abetting even if no one is charged or found guilty of committing the offense. The principal should, if possible, be identified when the inmate is charged.

(5) The penalty for aiding and abetting may be the same as for the substantive offense. See Table, DOC 303.84.

(6) The penalty given to an inmate who aids and abets need not be based in any way on the penalty, if any, given to the inmate who actually committed the offense.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80.

DOC 303.08 Institutional policies and procedures. (1) As provided under this chapter, institutions may make specific policies and procedures and provide that if inmates violate them, they may be disciplined. Wherever a specific policy or procedure provides for discipline if an inmate violates it, discipline may only be imposed if the policy or procedure was in fact posted on an official bulletin board at the time of the violation, or if the inmate had actual knowledge of the contents of the bulletin and that it was still in force, or if the inmate had received a copy of the bulletin.

(2) Each institution shall maintain at least one bulletin board for bulletins of general applicability. Bulletin boards shall be so located that every inmate has an opportunity to read all bulletins which apply to him or her. Additional bulletin boards should be maintained in workshops, classrooms, recreation areas, housing units, or other places for the posting of notices which apply only to inmates who use the particular facility involved. Each inmate at a maximum security institution shall be given a copy of all bulletins which are applicable to him or her.

(3) Bulletins which are no longer in force shall be removed.

(4) A notebook of all current bulletins shall be maintained and be available for inmates in the library.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80.

DOC 303.09 Manual of disciplinary rules. (1) All of the sections under this chapter, along with their notes, shall be printed in pamphlet or other appropriate form.

(2) A copy of this pamphlet shall be given to every inmate. Any time major changes are made, written notice to inmates shall be provided. The pamphlet shall be entitled Disciplinary Rules.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80.

DOC 303.10 Seizure and disposition of contraband. (1) "Contraband" means any of the following:

(a) Any item which inmates may not knowingly possess under ss. DOC 303.42 to 303.47 (for example, money, intoxicants, drug paraphernalia and weapons);

(b) Any item which is not state property and is on the institution grounds but not in the possession of any person;

(c) Any item which is in the possession of an inmate, if knowing possession of it would violate s. DOC 303.47;

(d) Any item which an inmate may possess but which comes into his or her possession through unauthorized channels or which is not on the inmate's property list and is required to be; or

(e) Stolen property.

(2) SEIZURE. Any staff member who reasonably believes that an item is contraband may seize the item, whether or not the staff member believes a violation of ss. DOC 303.42 to 303.47 has occurred. Items seized shall be sent to the security director, accompanied by the conduct report if there is one. If there is not, the item shall be accompanied by a written report. Property which is not contraband shall be returned to the owner or disposed of in accordance with this section.

(3) DISPOSITION. If a conduct report is written, the disposal of the item shall be decided by the hearing officer or committee at the disciplinary hearing. If there is no conduct report, the security director may dispose of seized items. Disposal should be as follows:

(a) Currency (money). All confiscated currency shall be placed in the state's general fund.

(b) Checks. Checks and other negotiable instruments shall be returned to the maker. If it is not possible to determine an address for the maker of the check, the check shall be destroyed.

(c) U.S. bonds and other securities. Upon proof of ownership and the source of a U.S. bond or other security, the item shall be held in the institution business office until it can be returned to the owner. If the owner is an inmate, it shall be held until his or her release from the institution, at which time it shall be transferred with the inmate's general account funds to the department cashier. It shall be returned to the inmate upon discharge or at any earlier time when the supervising agent determines that continued control over it is no longer necessary.

(d) Property. If the owner is known, property may be returned to the true owner, placed in storage, or sent at the inmate's expense to another, in accordance with the nature of the property, unless the owner transferred the property in an unauthorized manner. Otherwise, items of inherent value shall be sold through the department's purchasing officer and money received shall be placed in the state's general fund. Items of inconsequential value (having a value of $5 or less) shall be destroyed. Property items authorized but in excess of the amount allowed inmates may be sent at the inmate's expense to anyone designated by the inmate or stored.

(e) Intoxicating substances. Intoxicating substances shall be disposed of by the institution or given to the sheriff's department for use as evidence or for disposal.

(f) Weapons. Weapons not required for use as evidence may be retained for training purposes or disposed of by institution authorities or law enforcement agencies.

(g) Institution property. Any article originally assigned as property of the institution shall be returned to service at the institution.

(4) If an inmate believes that property should be returned, placed in storage or sent out at his or her direction, and a decision to dispose of it in a different manner has been made, the inmate may file a grievance. The property shall not be disposed of until the grievance is resolved.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80.

DOC 303.11 Temporary lockup: use. (1) An inmate may be placed in temporary lockup (TLU) by a security supervisor, security director, or superintendent.

(2) If the inmate is placed in temporary lockup by a security supervisor, the security director shall review this action on the next working day. Before this review and the review provided for in sub. (3), the inmate shall be provided with the reason for confinement in TLU and with an opportunity to respond, either orally or in writing. Review of the decision must include consideration of the inmate's response to the confinement. If, upon review, it is determined that TLU is not appropriate, the inmate shall be released from TLU immediately.

(3) No inmate may remain in TLU more than 21 days, except that the superintendent, with notice to the division administrator, may extend this period for up to 21 additional days for cause. The security director shall review the status of each inmate in TLU every 7 days to determine whether TLU continues to be appropriate. If upon review it is determined the TLU is not appropriate, the inmate shall be released from TLU immediately.

(4) An inmate may be placed in TLU and kept there only if the decision maker is satisfied that it is more likely than not that one or more of the following is true:

(a) If the inmate remains in the general population, the inmate will seek to intimidate a witness in a pending investigation or disciplinary action;

(b) If the inmate remains in the general population, he or she will encourage other inmates by example, expressly, or by their presence, to defy staff authority and thereby erode staff's ability to control a particular situation;

(c) If the inmate remains in the general population, it will create a substantial danger to the physical safety of the inmate or another;

(d) If the inmate remains in the general population, it will create a substantial danger that the inmate will try to escape from the institution; or

(e) If the inmate remains in the general population, a disciplinary investigation will thereby be inhibited.

(5) When an inmate is placed in TLU, the person who does so shall state the reasons on the appropriate form and shall include the facts upon which the decision is based. The inmate shall be given a copy of the form. Upon review, the security director shall approve or disapprove the TLU on the form.

(6) Conditions in TLU shall, insofar as feasible, be the same as those in the status from which the inmate came prior to TLU placement. An inmate who had been earning compensation shall continue to be compensated at the rate earned in his or her previous status, except that an inmate employed by corrections industries shall be compensated in accordance with s. DOC 313.08. If 1983 Wis. Act 528 does not apply to the inmate, he or she shall continue to earn extra good time credit. The inmate may be required to wear mechanical restraints, as defined in s. DOC 306.09 (1), while outside the cell if the superintendent or designee determines that the use of mechanical restraints is necessary to protect staff or inmates or to maintain the security of the institution.

Code of inmate offenses introductory note

The purposes of the disciplinary system, including the substantive rules, are addressed in DOC 303.01 and note. However, it is helpful to stress and develop further several points which have particular relevance to the substantive offenses.

In identifying what conduct should be the subject of the disciplinary code, principal reliance was placed on experience. Experience teaches that the offenses which follow are those committed in institutions and that the disciplinary system is appropriate for dealing with them.

There is considerable overlap between the disciplinary rules and the criminal code, principally in the area of crimes of violence. "White-collar" crimes are generally not duplicated in the rules because they have not been a disciplinary problem. However, crimes against persons and property are an important disciplinary problem, and the correctional authorities need to have the power to deal with them without always resorting to the cumbersome machinery of the judicial system.

The experience in Wisconsin has been that disciplinary proceedings are a more effective way of dealing with most crimes committed in prison than prosecution is. In extreme cases, of course, cases are referred for prosecution. However, in these cases as well as in less serious cases, prison officials need to have the authority to isolate or punish individuals in order to prevent a recurrence of violence. The U.S. supreme court has approved the practice of bringing both disciplinary and criminal proceedings against an individual based on a single incident, implying that no double jeopardy problems are raised by this practice. Baxter v. Palmigiano, 425 U.S. 308 (1976).

In addition to reevaluating the purpose and effectiveness of each rule, an attempt has been made to make sections as specific as possible even where the substance of the rule remained unchanged. For example, former policy and procedure 2.02 stated, "Residents shall not sexually assault another person." New DOC 303.13 and 303.14 define 2 types of sexual assault in very specific terms. This example also points up another change in some rules: rules covering both serious and less serious offenses have been split, so that now someone looking at an inmate's record will have a clearer idea of exactly how serious the disciplinary offenses have been. This is especially important at parole hearings and program review committee meetings.

An inmate may waive in writing the time limits provided in this section.

(3) HEARING OFFICER. The superintendent shall appoint one or more staff members to serve as hearing officers. Only persons who are eligible to serve on the adjustment committee may be appointed. DOC 303.76. Hearing procedure for major violations. (1) NOTICE. When an inmate is alleged to have committed a major violation and the security director or designee has reviewed the conduct report pursuant to s. The conduct report shall inform the inmate of the rules which he or she is alleged to have violated, the potential penalties or other potential results that may be imposed, including but not limited to removal from work release, and that he or she may exercise the right to a due process hearing or may waive this right in writing. The inmate shall be informed that if he or she waives the right to a formal due process hearing, he or she will be given an informal hearing under s. DOC 303.75. The inmate shall be informed that if a formal due process hearing is chosen, the inmate may present oral, written, documentary and physical evidence, and evidence from voluntary eyewitnesses in accordance with this section and s. DOC 303.81; that he or she has a right to the assistance of a staff advocate in accordance with this section and s. DOC 303.79; that the adjustment committee may permit direct questions or require the inmate or his or her advocate to submit questions to the adjustment committee to be asked of the witness; that repetitive, disrespectful and irrelevant questions are forbidden; and that the inmate may appeal the finding and disposition of the adjustment committee in accordance with sub. (7). The inmate shall also be informed that if he or she refuses to attend a hearing, the hearing may be conducted without the inmate being present.

(2) WAIVER. An inmate may waive the right to a due process hearing in writing at any time. If the inmate waives a due process hearing, the conduct report shall be disposed of under the hearing procedures for minor violations, s. DOC 303.75. A waiver does not constitute an admission of the alleged violation. A waiver may not be retracted without the security director's approval.

(3) TIME LIMITS. A due process hearing shall be held no sooner than 2 working days or later than 21 days after the inmate receives a copy of the conduct report and hearing notice. The inmate may request additional time to prepare for the hearing, and the security director shall grant the request unless there is a good reason to deny it.

(4) PLACE. The due process hearing may take place at the institution where the alleged conduct occurred, at a county jail or at an institution to which an inmate has been transferred.

The adjustment committee may require that physical evidence be offered. The adjustment committee

(6) DECISION. After the hearing the adjustment committee shall deliberate in private, considering only the evidence presented to it and the inmate's records. The institution is required to establish guilt by a preponderance of the evidence. The adjustment committee may find the inmate guilty or not guilty. A committee of 3 may find the inmate guilty if at least 2 of the 3 members find by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she is guilty, and if 2 agree upon a sentence, may sentence the inmate. A committee of 2 or of one may find the inmate guilty if the committee members unanimously find by a preponderance of the evidence that the inmate is guilty and may sentence the inmate if they are unanimous as to the sentence. If a sentence is not agreed upon, the matter shall be referred to the superintendent for decision. The committee shall then recall the accused and his or her advocate, if any, and announce its decision or the decision of the superintendent. The accused and his or her advocate, if any, shall each receive a written copy of the decision.

(7) APPEAL. (a) Any time within 10 days after a due process hearing, an inmate who is found guilty may appeal the decision or the sentence, or both, to the superintendent.

(b) The superintendent shall review all records and forms pertaining to the appeal and make his or her decision within 10 days following receipt of the request.

(c) The superintendent's decision shall be to:

1. Affirm the adjustment committee's decision and the sentence;
2. Affirm the adjustment committee's decision but reduce the sentence in type or quality;
3. Reverse the adjustment committee's decision. In this case, all records of the decision shall be removed from all offender-based files. Records may be kept for statistical purposes only; or
4. Return the case to the adjustment committee for further consideration.

(d) The superintendent's decision is final.

DOC 303.78 Due process hearing: advocates. (1) (a) At each institution, the superintendent may designate or hire staff members to serve as advocates for inmates in disciplinary hearings at the institution, or staff members may volunteer to serve as advocates.

(b) At institutions that do not employ permanent full-time advocates, the superintendent shall place the names of 3 staff members who are available to serve as advocates in a particular week on a list and shall give the list to the hearing officers. The inmate shall be permitted to choose an advocate from the list of 3, except that the caseloads of advocates may be regulated by the superintendent.

(c) At institutions that employ permanent full-time advocates, the superintendent shall assign advocates to inmates. If an inmate objects to Register, April, 1990, No. 412 the assignment of a particular advocate because the advocate has a known and demonstrated conflict of interest in the case, the superintendent shall assign a different staff member to serve as the inmate's advocate.

(2) The advocate's purpose is to help the accused to understand the charges against him or her and to help in the preparation and presentation of any defense he or she has, including gathering evidence and testimony, and preparing the accused's own statement. The advocate may speak on behalf of the accused at a disciplinary hearing or may help the accused prepare to speak for himself or herself.

(3) A training program for advocates should be conducted as often as possible. The training program should cover the following subjects:

- (a) Proper role of the advocate;
- (b) Techniques of interviewing the accused;
- (c) Conduct covered and not covered in each disciplinary rule including the significance of lesser included offenses;
- (d) Techniques of factual investigation;
- (e) The elements of violations in the rules; and
- (f) Defenses.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80; r. and recr. (1), Register, October, 1984, No. 346, eff. 11-1-84; renun. from DOC 303.79, Register, April, 1985, No. 352, eff. 5-1-85. 1188

DOC 303.81 Due process hearing: witnesses. (1) A request by the inmate for witnesses to appear at the major violation hearing, including requests for the appearance of the staff member who signed the conduct report, may be made by the accused to the advocate who shall deliver the request to the security office. Except for good cause, an inmate may present no more than 2 witnesses in addition to the reporting staff member or members. If an inmate does not have an advocate, the request shall be sent directly to the security office. This request shall be made within 2 days of the service of notice.

(2) After all witness requests have been received, the hearing officer shall review them and do any investigation necessary to determine whether the witnesses should be called. The hearing officer may only call witnesses who possess relevant information. If a witness refuses to appear, the hearing officer shall determine if the refusal is justified. If the refusal is justified, the hearing officer shall note on the record the reason for the witness' refusal to appear.

(3) Witnesses requested by the accused who are staff or inmates shall attend the disciplinary hearing unless:

- (a) There is a significant risk of bodily harm to the witness if he or she testifies; or
- (b) The witness is an inmate who does not want to testify; or
- (c) The testimony is irrelevant to the question of guilt or innocence; or
- (d) The testimony is merely cumulative of other evidence and would unduly prolong the hearing; or

(e) An inmate witness must be transported to a county jail to testify, in which case the advocate may be required to interview the witness and report on the testimony to the committee in lieu of a personal appearance by the witness.

(4) If an inmate witness will be unavailable due to hospitalization, transfer or release, or if a staff member witness, who may be the officer who reported the rule violation, will be unavailable due to illness, no longer being employed at the location, being on vacation or being on a different shift, but there is no other reason to exclude the witness's testimony under sub. (3), then the hearing officer shall attempt to get a signed statement from the witness to be used at the disciplinary hearing.

(5) If a witness's testimony would be relevant and useful to the adjustment committee but the witness does not wish to testify, or if testifying would pose a significant risk of bodily harm to the witness, the hearing officer may attempt to get a signed statement to be used at the disciplinary hearing. See s. DOC 303.86, Evidence, for the circumstances under which the adjustment committee can consider such a statement without revealing the name of the witness.

(6) If it is not possible to get a signed statement in accordance with subs. (4) and (5), the hearing officer may consider other evidence of what the witness would say if present.

(7) After determining which witnesses will be called for the accused, the hearing officer shall notify the inmate of the decision in writing and schedule a time for a hearing when all of the following people can be present:

- (a) Adjustment committee members;
- (b) Advocate, if any;
- (c) Officer who wrote the conduct report;
- (d) Other witnesses against the accused (if any);
- (e) Accused; and
- (f) Witnesses for accused (if any).

(7m) In the case of inmate witnesses and the accused, an attempt should be made to avoid conflict with off ground activities, but these persons may be required to attend the hearing even if it conflicts with other activities.

(8) Witnesses other than inmates or staff may not attend hearings but they may be contacted by advocates with the hearing officer's permission. The adjustment committee may designate a staff member to interview any such witness and report to the committee.

(9) The hearing officer shall prepare notice of the hearing and give it to the accused, the advocate (if any), the committee and all witnesses, including the staff member who wrote the conduct report.

DOC 303.82 Adjustment committee. (1) Due process disciplinary hearings shall be conducted by a committee of one, 2 or 3 staff members appointed by the superintendent. Persons eligible to serve on an adjustment committee are: the superintendent, assistant superintendents, supervisors, correctional officers, social workers, and any other equally responsible staff members. Efforts shall be made to place staff from diverse backgrounds on the multi-member adjustment committee. At least one member of every adjustment committee shall be a supervisor.

(2) No person who has personally observed or been a part of an incident which is the subject of a hearing may serve on the committee for that hearing. Committee members should find out the subject matter of the hearing in advance in order to allow replacement of committee members if necessary and thereby avoid the necessity of postponing the hearing. The security director who reviews the conduct report or classifies the offense, as required by ss. DOC 303.67 and 303.68, is not involved in the incident by reviewing the conduct report or classifying the offense to the extent that he or she is automatically disqualified from being on the adjustment committee.

(3) An adjustment committee may hold a hearing even if the inmate has waived due process, if it is more convenient for the committee to hold the hearing than to schedule a hearing before a hearing officer. In that case the committee should follow the procedure for a hearing before a hearing officer.

(4) When a single hearing officer is sitting on the adjustment committee pursuant to sub. (1), or after the waiver of due process, he or she has the same authority as given the adjustment committee under this chapter.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80; am. (1) and (2), Register, April, 1985, No. 352, eff. 5-1-85.

DOC 303.83 Sentencing considerations. In deciding the sentence for a violation or group of violations, the supervisor making summary disposition or the adjustment committee or hearing officer who is holding the hearing shall consider the following:

(1) The inmate's overall disciplinary record, especially during the last year;

(2) Whether the inmate has previously been found guilty of the same or a similar offense, how often, and how recently;

(3) Whether the alleged violation created a risk of serious disruption at the institution or in the community;

(4) Whether the alleged violation created a risk of serious injury to another person;

(5) The value of the property involved, if the alleged violation was actual or attempted damage to property, misuse of property, possession of money, gambling, unauthorized transfer of property, soliciting staff or theft;

(6) Whether the inmate was actually aware that he or she was committing a crime or offense at the time of the offense;

(7) The motivation for the offense;

(8) The inmate's attitude toward the offense and toward the victim, if any;

(9) Mitigating factors, such as coercion, family difficulties which may have created anxiety and the like;

(10) Whether the offense created a risk to the security of the institution, inmates, staff or the community; and

(11) The time he or she spent in TLU.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1980, No. 296, eff. 9-1-80.

DOC 303.84 Sentencing procedure and schedule of penalties. (1) In every case where an inmate is found guilty of one or more violations of the disciplinary rules, one or more of the following penalties shall be imposed, except as provided in sub. (2) and ss. DOC 303.68 to 303.72:

(a) Reprimand;

(b) Loss of recreational privilege for 1 to 30 days;

(c) Room confinement for 1 to 10 days;

(d) Building confinement for 1 to 30 days;

(e) Loss of a specific privilege for 1 to 30 days for the first offense, for 1 to 60 days for the second offense and permanently for the third.

(f) Mail and visiting privileges and no-contact visiting as provided in the departmental rules relating to mail, visiting and no-contact visiting.

(g) Adjustment segregation for 1 to 8 days;

(h) Extra duty without pay for 1 to 10 days;

(i) Program segregation for a specific term of 30, 60, 90, 120, 180 or 360 days;

(j) Loss of good time for an inmate whose crime was committed before June 1, 1984, and who did not choose to have 1983 Wis. Act 528 apply to him or her, or extension of the mandatory release date for an inmate whose crime was committed on or after June 1, 1984, and for other inmates who chose to have 1983 Wis. Act 528 apply to them; or

(k) Restitution.

(2) Punishment imposed pursuant to sub. (1) is subject to the following:

(a) Adjustment segregation, program segregation and loss of good time or extension of the mandatory release date, whichever is applicable, may be imposed for a single major offense. At one hearing, the maximum penalty is the most severe penalty the inmate could receive for any single offense of which he or she is found guilty. The duration of a penalty may not exceed the duration shown in Table 303.84.

(am) More than one minor penalty may be imposed for a single offense and both a major and minor penalty may be imposed for a major offense.

(b) Loss of accumulated good time or extension of the mandatory release date may be imposed as a penalty only where the violation is listed as a major offense under s. DOC 303.68 (3) or is designated as a major offense by the security director because of its nature or the inmate's prior record.

One	10
2 or more	20

2. For those inmates to whom 1983 Wis. Act 528 applies, the number of days the mandatory release date is extended on one occasion may be based on the number of prior occasions on which the inmate lost good time or had his or her mandatory release date extended but shall not exceed the following:

DOC 303.85 Recordkeeping. (1) Records of disciplinary infractions may be included in an inmate's case record only in the following situations:

(a) If the inmate was found guilty by summary disposition procedure (See DOC 303.74); or

(b) If the inmate was found guilty by a hearing officer or an adjustment committee. Records must be removed if an appeal is successful (See DOC 303.79).

(2) Records of alleged disciplinary infractions which have been dismissed or in which the inmate was found not guilty may be kept for statistical purposes, but they may not be considered in making program assignment, transfer, or parole release decisions, nor may they be included in any inmate's case record.

DOC 303.86 Evidence. (1) (a) "Evidence" is any statement or object which could be presented at a disciplinary hearing or in a court of law, whether or not it is admissible.

(b) Evidence is relevant if that evidence makes it appear more likely or less likely that the inmate committed the offense of which he or she is accused:

Note: For example: an inmate is accused of threatening another inmate. Testimony that the accused and the other inmate had a loud argument the day before is relevant. It indicates a possible motive for a threat and makes it appear more likely that a threat occurred. An officer testifies that the accused has lied to him or her on previous occasions. This is relevant if the testimony of the accused varies from the conduct report.

(2) (a) An adjustment committee or a hearing officer may consider any relevant evidence, whether or not it would be admissible in a court of law and whether or not any violation of this chapter occurred in the process of gathering the evidence.

(b) An adjustment committee or a hearing officer may refuse to hear or admit relevant evidence for any of the following reasons:

1. The evidence is not reliable, for example: opinions which are not supported by factual observation; hearsay (statements made outside of the hearing); reputation of the witness;

2. The evidence, even if true, would be of marginal relevance, for example: evidence of prior acts by the accused or a witness, to show that he or she is repeating a pattern; or

3. The evidence is merely cumulative of evidence already received at the hearing and is no more reliable than the already admitted evidence, for example: testimony of other inmates corroborating the accused's story, when corroboration has already occurred.

(3) If a witness is unavailable to testify, a written statement, a transcript of an oral statement, or a tape-recorded statement may be considered. Unavailability means death, transfer, release, hospitalization, or escape in the case of an inmate; death, illness, vacation, no longer being employed at that location, or being on a different shift in the case of a staff member.

(4) If a witness refuses to testify in person and if the committee finds that testifying would pose a significant risk of bodily harm to the witness, the committee may consider a corroborated, signed statement under oath from that witness without revealing the witness's identity. The contents of the statement shall be revealed to the accused, though the statement may be edited to avoid revealing the identity of the witness. The committee may question the witnesses, if they are otherwise available. Two anonymous statements by different persons may be used to corroborate each other. A statement can be corroborated in either of the following ways:

(a) By other evidence which substantially corroborates the facts alleged in the statement such as, eyewitness account by a staff member or circumstantial evidence; or

(b) By evidence of a very similar violation by the same person.

(5) After disposition has been reached by the adjustment committee, and if a finding of guilt results, restricted informant material shall then be forwarded to the security office for retention in the restricted security department file with all other copies of the entire hearing results.

(6) The original conduct report and all due process documents shall be placed in the inmate's case record. However, restricted informant reports shall be placed only in the security department restricted file.

DOC 303.87 Harmless error. If a procedural requirement under this chapter is not adhered to by staff, the error may be deemed harmless and disregarded if it does not substantially affect the rights of the inmate. Rights are substantially affected when a variance from a requirement prejudices a fair proceeding involving an inmate.

History: Cr. Register, April, 1985, No. 352, eff. 5-1-85.
