A solicitor's permit shall be valid for one year from the date issued.

(2) The board shall review and make a determination on an original application for a solicitor's permit within 25 business days after receiving the application.

(3) The time period for handling an application shall end when the board issues a permit or notifies the applicant in writing that the permit has not been issued because the criteria specified by statute, or administrative rule, or both have not been met.

(4) The board's failure to review and make a determination on a permit application within the time period specified in this section does not relieve any person from the obligation to secure a solicitor's permit nor affect in any way the board's authority to interpret the requirements for a permit or to grant or deny a permit.
