(a) A class;

(b) Class subtitle;

(c) Progression series that has been approved by the secretary for use by the agency; or

History: Cr. Register, May, 1988, No. 389, eff. 6-1-88

ER-Pers 22.04 Certain employes released first. Before an employe with permanent status in class may be laid off, the appointing authority shall terminate all employes in the approved layoff group in the employing unit in which the layoff occurs who are performing duties which the employe would be qualified to perform after being given the customary orientation provided to newly hired workers and who are:

(1) Limited term employes, including provisional employes;

Register, May, 1988, No. 389

- (2) Employees serving on a project appointment; and
- (3) Employees serving an original appointment probationary period.

History: Cr. Register, September, 1975, No. 237, eff. 10-1-75; renum. from Pers 22.03 (2) and am., Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81; am. (intro.) and (1), Register, February, 1983, No. 326, eff. 3-1-83; am. (intro.), Register, May, 1988, No. 389, eff. 6-1-88.

ER-Pers 22.05 Layoff plan subject to approval. Whenever it becomes necessary for an agency to lay off employees, the appointing authority shall prepare a comprehensive written plan for layoff following the procedure specified in this chapter and submitted to the administrator for review and approval prior to implementation.

History: Emerg. cr. eff. 4-25-75; cr. Register, September, 1975, No. 237, eff. 10-1-75; renum. from Pers 22.09 and am., Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

ER-Pers 22.06 Procedure for making layoffs. (1) In the layoff plan submitted to the administrator, under s. ER-Pers 22.05, the appointing authority shall recommend the layoff group in which the layoff is to occur. The layoff group shall reflect the staffing processes followed for included positions. Full-time and part-time positions may constitute different layoff groups.

(2) The appointing authority may exempt from the layoff group up to 2 employees or 20%, whichever is greater, of the number of employees in the layoff group to retain employees having special or superior skills or for other purposes as determined by the appointing authority. In addition, for affirmative action purposes, as defined in s. 230.03 (2), Stats., the appointing authority may exempt, subject to the approval of the administrator, female, minority and handicapped employees in the layoff group. Exercise of these exemptions may be requested by the appointing authority as part of the layoff plan submitted under s. ER-Pers 22.05.

(3) The remaining employees, plus those on an approved leave of absence, in the layoff group, shall be ranked by seniority computed on the basis of continuous service as set forth in s. ER 18.02 (2) and (3), with any resulting tied cases to be ranked, relative to each other, according to their total continuous service in the approved layoff group. If, after completing this ranking, a tie still exists between 2 or more employees, continuous service of the tied employees shall be determined by age, with the oldest employee deemed to have the greatest continuous service. Employees shall be laid off according to their continuous service ranking, with the employee with the least continuous service laid off first.

(4) With the agreement of the appointing authority, an employee with more continuous service in the layoff group may volunteer to be terminated from employment in lieu of the layoff of an employee with less continuous service, with the guarantee that the appointing authority will not challenge the volunteering employee's eligibility for unemployment compensation, unless that employee later refuses a reasonable offer of reappointment.

History: Emerg. cr. eff. 4-25-75; cr. Register, September, 1975, No. 237, eff. 10-1-75; renum. from Pers 2.035 and am., Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81; am. (1) and (2), cr. (4), Register, February, 1983, No. 326, eff. 3-1-83; am. Register, May, 1988, No. 389, eff. 6-1-88.

ER-Pers 22.07 Notice prior to layoff; appeal notice. Any employee affected by layoff shall be given written notice of the action, not less than 15 calendar days prior to its effective date. The written notice of layoff shall, to the extent practicable, include the specific alternatives within the agency available at that time to the employe in lieu of termination. The appointing authority shall continue to keep the employe aware of new alternatives available up to the effective date of the layoff. The employe shall be entitled to appeal the layoff action to the commission upon filing a written request with the commission within 30 calendar days of the effective date of the decision or within 30 calendar days after receipt of notice of the action, whichever is later. No notice of appeal or pending litigation as a result thereof, affects any determination previously or subsequently made by the appointing authority, until an order is entered by the commission, unless the order is stayed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1972, No. 202, eff. 11-1-72; emerg. am. eff. 4-25-75; am., Register, September, 1975, No. 237, eff. 10-1-75; renum. from Pers 22.05 and am., Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81; am. Register, February, 1983, No. 326, eff. 3-1-83.

ER-Pers 22.08 Alternatives to termination from the service as a result of layoff. If an employe with permanent status in a class has received a notice of layoff under s. ER-Pers 22.07 these alternatives shall be available in the order listed below until the effective date of the layoff. Employees in the same layoff group who are laid off on the same date shall have the right to exercise the following alternatives to termination from the service as a result of layoff in direct order of their seniority, most senior first:

(1) TRANSFER. (a) All employes who have received a notice of layoff have the right to transfer:

1. Within the employing unit, to any vacancy in the same or counterpart pay range for which the employe is qualified to perform the work after being given the customary orientation provided to newly hired workers in the position; or

2. Within the agency, to any vacancy in the approved layoff group from which the employe is being laid off for which the employe is qualified to perform the work after being given the customary orientation provided to newly hired workers in the position.

(b) An employe who transfers within the agency as an alternative to termination from the service immediately attains permanent status in class in the class to which the employe transfers, except that:

1. An employe who is serving a promotional probationary period must complete that probationary period in the new position.

2. An employe who is serving a permissive probationary period may be required to complete that probationary period in the new position.

3. An employe who transfers to a position in a different employing unit of the same agency may be required to serve a probationary period in accordance with s. 230.28 (1) (am) or (4), Stats., as applicable. During this probationary period, the employe may be removed from the position without the right of appeal and restored to his or her former position or transferred to a different position. If the employe's former position has been abolished, and there is no other vacant position in the agency in the same or counterpart pay range for which the employe is qualified to perform the work after being given the customary orientation provided for a newly hired worker, the employe shall be treated as if he or she had been restored to the previous position, and the provisions for making layoffs under this chapter shall apply.

(c) An employe who transfers between agencies as a result of layoff may be required by the appointing authority to serve a probationary period, except that an employe who is serving a promotional probationary period must complete that probationary period in the new position. In addition, an employe who is serving a permissive probationary period may be required to complete that probationary period in the new position. If on probation, the employe may be terminated without the right of appeal. However, if terminated while on probation as a result of transfer between agencies as a result of layoff, the employe shall have restoration rights under s. ER-Pers 22.10 (2). If the employe is not required to serve a probationary period, the employe immediately attains permanent status in class in the class to which the employe has transferred.

(2) DEMOTION AS A RESULT OF LAYOFF. If no transfer under sub. (1) is available and if there is a vacancy available for which the employe is qualified to perform the work after being given the customary orientation provided to newly hired workers in such positions, in a higher level position than could be obtained through displacement under sub. (3), an appointing authority shall offer the employe a demotion to that vacancy. This offer shall be subject to the criteria for a reasonable offer of appointment under s. ER-Pers 22.09 and the following:

(a) Within an agency. An employe may demote to a position in a lower classification in the same agency in lieu of being terminated as a result of layoff.

1. An employe demoted under this sub. immediately attains permanent status in class in the class to which the employe is demoted, except that an employe demoted to a position in a different employing unit of the same agency may be required to serve a probationary period in accordance with s. 230.28 (1) (am) or (4), Stats., as applicable. During this probationary period, the employe may be removed from the position without the right of appeal and restored to his or her former position or transferred to a different position. If the employe's former position has been abolished, the employe shall be given consideration for any vacancy within the agency in the same or counterpart pay range for which the employe is qualified to perform the work after being given the customary orientation provided for newly hired workers. If no such vacancy exists, the employe shall be treated as if he or she has been restored to the previous position, and the provisions for making layoffs under this chapter shall apply.

2. For pay provisions regarding an employe who is demoted by the appointing authority, as a result of a layoff to the highest level vacancy available for which the employe is qualified, see s. ER 29.03 (8)(c).

3. For pay provisions regarding an employe who chooses, with the approval of the appointing authority, to be demoted as a result of layoff to a vacancy which is at a lower level than other available vacancies to which the employe could be demoted, see s. ER 29.03 (8)(f).

(b) Between agencies. An employe may demote to a position in a lower classification in a different agency in lieu of being terminated as a result of layoff.

ER-Pers 22

1. The employe may be required to serve a probationary period at the discretion of the appointing authority, and if during this period the employe's services are found to be unsatisfactory, the employe may be terminated without the right of appeal. However, if terminated while on probation, the employe shall have restoration rights under s. ER-Pers 22.10 (2). If the employe is not required to serve a probationary period, the employe immediately attains permanent status in class in the class to which the employe is demoted.

2. An employe who demotes as a result of layoff between agencies shall have his or her pay determined under s. ER 29.03 (8)(f).

(3) DISPLACEMENT. (a) If there is no position obtainable under subs. (1) and (2) at the same or higher level than any position obtainable under this subsection, an employe may exercise a right of displacement within the employing unit.

1. If qualified to perform the work after customary orientation provided for newly hired workers in such positions, an employe may exercise the right of displacement only: to a lower level within the employe's present classification series; to a position in a lower class in which the employe had previously attained permanent status in class; or to a lower level within an approved progression series in which the employe had previously attained permanent status in class at a higher level. The employe may exercise the right of displacement in the order which will achieve the highest level position to which the employe has rights.

2. If the employe has previously attained permanent status in class in a position whose classification had been affected by an action of the administrator, the employe shall immediately attain rights to the classification which replaced the original classification of the position previously held by the employe.

3. Exercise of such displacement rights does not guarantee the employe a position in the class or subtitle selected. It only requires the employe to be included along with other employes in the class or subtitle when the layoff process as provided in s. ER-Pers 22.06 is applied to determine which employe is laid off as a result of displacement.

4. An employe who elects to exercise displacement rights has 5 calendar days from the date of written notification of impending layoff or receipt of such written notification, whichever is later, to exercise that option.

5. If there is more than one position in the same or counterpart pay range to which the employe is eligible to exercise the right of displacement, the appointing authority may designate the position to which the employe shall first exercise the right of displacement.

(b) An employe who exercises displacement rights within the employing unit as a result of layoff immediately attains permanent status in class in the class into which the employe has been placed.

(c) An employe who exercises displacement rights shall have his or her pay determined under s. ER 29.03 (8)(c).

ER-Pers 22.09 Failure to accept reasonable offer of appointment. (1) An employe who has been notified of layoff and fails to accept a reasonable offer of permanent appointment within the agency within 5 work days of the offer or who, upon acceptance, fails to be available for work within 5 work days after acceptance forfeits any further rights to an appointment under ss. ER-Pers 22.08 and 22.10.

(2) An offer of appointment shall be considered reasonable if it meets the following 5 conditions as of the date of the offer:

(a) The position is one which the employe would be qualified to perform after customary orientation provided to new workers in the position;

(b) The position is the highest level position available within the agency to which the employe could either transfer or demote;

(c) The number of work hours required does not vary substantially from the number of work hours previously worked; and

(d) The position is located at a work site that is within reasonable proximity of the original work site.

(e) The pay range of the position offered is no more than 2 pay ranges or counterpart pay ranges lower than the pay range of the position from which the employe was laid off, unless the employe's rate of pay at the time of layoff is maintained in the position offered.

ER-Pers 22.10 Restoration rights and conditions. An employe or former employe who transfers or demotes to another agency as a result of layoff under s. ER-Pers 22.08 (1) or (2) and is terminated while on probation, exercises displacement rights as a result of layoff under s. ER-Pers 22.08 (3), is demoted as a result of layoff under s. ER-Pers 22.08 (2), or is terminated as a result of layoff, shall, under s. 230.34 (2), Stats., be granted the following considerations for a 3-year period from the date of such action:

(1) RETURN TO SAME EMPLOYING UNIT. When a vacancy occurs in the employing unit at or closest to the same or counterpart pay range level from which an employe was terminated as a result of layoff, exercised displacement rights, demoted as a result of layoff, or transferred or demoted between agencies as a result of layoff and was terminated while on probation, the employe shall be recalled in inverse order of layoff providing the employe is qualified to perform the work after being given the customary orientation provided newly hired workers in such position, unless the employe previously declined a similar offer.

(2) RETURN TO THE AGENCY. When a vacancy occurs in the agency in the approved layoff group from which the employe was terminated as a result of layoff, exercised displacement rights, demoted as a result of layoff, or transferred or demoted between agencies as a result of layoff and was terminated while on probation, the employe shall be recalled in inverse order of layoff, providing the employe is qualified to perform the work after being given the customary orientation provided newly hired workers in such position, unless the employe previously declined a similar offer. The order for recall of an employe who transferred or demoted between agencies as a result of layoff and was terminated while on probation shall be determined on the basis of the effective date of the layoff. An employe recalled to a different employing unit in the agency may not be required to serve a probationary period.

Note: For pay of employes restored following layoff see s. ER 29.03 (7).

(3) REQUIREMENTS FOR RESTORATION. An employe or former employe having restoration rights under this section who fails to accept a reasonable offer of reappointment within the agency within 5 work days of the offer or who, upon acceptance, fails to be available for work within 10 work days after acceptance, forfeits any further restoration rights under s. ER-Pers 22.10. If extenuating circumstances prevent an employe or former employe from reporting for work within 10 work days after acceptance or making other arrangements with the employer, the employe does not forfeit the right to further restoration when other vacancies occur, providing the nature of the extenuating circumstances was acceptable to the appointing authority.

(4) PAY ON RESTORATION. See s. ER-Pers 29.03 (7).

(6) EXPIRATION OF RIGHTS. An employe who transfers as a result of layoff under s. ER-Pers 22.08 (1) (a) 1. or 2., or who is restored after termination in lieu of layoff while serving a probationary period resulting from a promotion or transfer within the agency under s. ER-Pers 14.03 (1) or 15.04 (2), respectively, or who is restored or reinstated to a position within the agency in the same or counterpart pay range shall have no further restoration rights.

ER-Pers 22.11 Reinstatement privileges and conditions. (1) When a vacancy, for which the employe is qualified, occurs in another employing unit of the agency in any class other than the approved layoff group from which the employe was terminated:

- (a) As a result of layoff;
- (b) Exercised displacement rights;
- (c) Demoted as a result of layoff; or

(d) Transferred or demoted between agencies as a result of layoff; and was terminated while on probation, the employe may be reinstated at the discretion of the appointing authority within a 3-year period from the date of any of the actions taken in this subsection as a result of being subject to layoff.

Note: For pay of employes upon reinstatement following layoff, see s. ER 29.03 (6). For pay of employes upon reinstatement where a probationary period is required, see s. ER 29.03 (2) (b).

Upon expiration of such periods, seasonal and sessional employees may, at the discretion of the appointing authority, be laid off until the beginning of the next seasonal or sessional work period. Such layoffs are not subject to any of the other provisions of this chapter.

(2) Employees in seasonal or sessional positions, who are laid off with the understanding that there is little or no expectation of future seasonal or sessional employment, shall be laid off in accordance with the provisions of this chapter as if they held permanent positions.

ER-Pers 22.14 Temporary layoff of employees. The administrator may approve exceptions to the procedures outlined in this chapter for temporary layoffs not to exceed 20 working days. Temporary layoffs may apply to some, or all of the employees in an employing unit. The appointing authority may recommend, subject to approval of the administrator, a plan for temporary layoffs, stating the reason for the temporary layoffs, the classes and number of employees affected in the employing unit, and the specific number of such days affected employees will be laid off. The plan shall be submitted to the administrator for approval prior to implementation. Consecutive temporary layoffs in the same employing unit may not be approved by the administrator for the same reason which caused the initial temporary layoff, unless a plan for permanent layoff has been submitted.
