

WISCONSIN ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

(b) In grading the foil, inlay and amalgam filling, the following points will be taken into consideration:

- Rubberdam adjustment (where indicated).
- Outline, resistance, retention and convenience forms.
- Walls and angles.
- Enamel margin.
- Filling margins.
- Adjoining tooth injury and gum laceration.
- Reproduction of tooth form.
- Contacts.
- General skill and finished operation.

(c) In grading the set-up, the following points will be taken into consideration:

- Esthetics.
- Centric, lateral and protrusive occlusion.
- Arch form; relationship of teeth to alveolar ridges.
- General skill; neatness, case waxed for flasking, wax margins, contour of wax, etc.

(4) The theoretical average count $\frac{1}{3}$ and the practical $\frac{2}{3}$ toward the final average for passing.

(5) Each applicant who attains a general average of 80% shall be considered as having passed the examination. Any applicant who attains an average of less than 80% in the practical requirements shall be considered as having failed. Any applicant who attains less than 80% in more than 5 subjects shall be considered to have failed, (unless such applicant shall obtain an average of 85% in all practical requirements).

(6) Each applicant for examinations provided for in section 152.03 (3), Wis. Stats., must attain a mark of 80% to pass each subject.

(7) Successful applicants shall be granted licenses to practice and the same shall be forwarded to them by registered mail, by the secretary. Unsuccessful applicants shall be notified by the secretary, by mail, of their failure, and shall be given a list of those subjects in theory in which they have made a grade of 80% or better for the purpose of exemption at the next examination.

(8) Each member of the board shall be allowed one per diem for each set of questions for examination he prepares, and one per diem for each 20 papers or fraction thereof, that he grades. All examination papers must be graded as provided in these rules, and tabulated returns of the same must be delivered or mailed to the secretary within reasonable time after such examinations. All examination papers must be held by the examiner for a period of 5 years before destroying.

DE 3.04 Issuance of licenses. (1) Licenses shall be issued as provided in these rules to all successful candidates.

(2) Duplicate licenses may be issued by the board upon receipt of application showing satisfactory evidence that the applicant's license has been lost or destroyed; the fee for such license shall be $5 and said fee shall accompany the application.

(3) New licenses may be issued by the board when a licentiate shall have changed his or her name. Said licentiate shall present an order from the court authorizing said change; shall make a formal application to the board and shall accompany said application with a fee of $5.

Or R
Nov
eff
2-1-