

Chapter Bkg 9

RETENTION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS

Bkg 9.01 Retention of records; reproduction thereof; destruction of obsolete records

Bkg 9.01 Retention of records; reproduction thereof; destruction of obsolete records. (1) Section 220.285, Stats., provides that all records kept may be copied or reproduced by any photostatic, photographic or miniature photographic process which correctly, accurately and permanently copies, reproduces or forms a medium for copying or reproducing the original record on a film or other durable material. That section also provides that such photographic, photostatic or miniature photographic copy or reproduction or copy reproduced from a film record made from a bank record is deemed to be an original record for all purposes and shall be treated as an original record in all courts or administrative agencies for the purpose of its admissibility in evidence. The schedule following sets forth the minimum retention period for records in either their original form or reproduced form, in order to ensure the preservation of such records so long as there is a reasonable possibility they may be required to establish a claim on behalf of the bank or to defend the bank from a claim made against it.

(2) The consent from the commissioner for the destruction of obsolete records after the minimum retention period is permissive and is not to be interpreted as requiring destruction at the end of the period. The commissioner of banking hereby gives this blanket consent for the destruction of records in accordance with the following schedule:
