(4) A departmental revocation or suspension under this chapter takes effect on the date of the suspension or revocation order, except that a revocation for a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which, if committed in this state, would have required revocation of the person's operating privilege under s. 343.32(1), Stats., takes effect on the date of the conviction.

(6) If a court orders suspension of a person's operating privilege under s. 343.30 (1), Stats., and the person is also subject to a demerit point suspension or revocation under s. 343.32, Stats., and this chapter, as a result of the same violation, the longer suspension or revocation period shall apply.

(b) A court ordered suspension for the same violation shall supersede a suspension under this section, except that the following shall apply:

1. The person's point accumulation may not exceed 15 in a one-year period.

2. The minimum length of suspension shall be 2 months.

Revocations and suspensions under chs. 48, 344, 345, 767, 800, 938 and 961, Stats., and ss. 343.30 (1q) (d), 343.30 (6), 343.305 (10), 343.32 (1m) (b) and 343.345, Stats., do not qualify for point reduction under this section.

(2) Demerit point reductions under this section shall apply only to demerit points based on convictions dated before the reinstatement or suspension termination date. Demerit points for convictions dated on or after the date of reinstatement or suspension termination date shall be added to the demerit point value on the date of reinstatement.

Trans 101.07 Reduction of point value for attendance at driver improvement counseling, traffic safety school or defensive driving courses. (1) In accordance with the authority in s. 343.32 (5), Stats., and the requirements of this section, a person's point record shall be reduced by 3 points or the number of points accumulated up to 3, upon satisfactory completion of one of the following courses approved, in advance, by the department:

- (a) A course of instruction at a traffic safety school;
- (b) A course of instruction in defensive driving or similar course; or,
- (c) Driver improvement counseling conducted under the program authorized by s. 110.08, Stats.
- (d) A motorcycle rider course offered under s. Trans 129.03 provided that the person has not had a prior point reduction resulting from attending a motorcycle rider course.

Note: See ch. Trans 106 concerning authorization, approval and administration of traffic safety schools and defensive driving courses.

(2) The certified instructor of the traffic safety, motorcycle rider or defensive driving course or the driver improvement analyst of the driver improvement counseling program shall furnish to the department a certification of completion of an approved course. A separate certification shall be provided to the department for each individual in the course. The certification shall be on the form prescribed by the department and must be made within 30 days of satisfactory completion of the course in order to qualify for point reduction. A copy of the completed certification form shall be furnished to the student, another copy sent to the court or assessment agency, if the student was assigned to the school, and one copy shall be retained by the school. The department may approve the use of a reproduction of this form, at the request of a school, including computerized versions.

Note: The multipart form MV-3304, course completion certificate, is available by mail upon request. Each form produces an original and 3 copies. Send requests to DOT Document Sales, P.O. Box 7713, Madison, Wisconsin 53707-7713.

(3) Each person is limited to only one point reduction under this section in a 5-year period.

(5) In those instances where the person attends an approved course and is otherwise entitled to point reduction and the person's record has less than 3 points, the person's record will be reduced by the record point value. No credit will be applied toward future point assessments nor shall the opportunity be given to have the point record reduced again within a 5-year period.

(6) When a person has accumulated 6 to 11 points in 12 months, the department may notify a person by first class mail to the last known address that there is an opportunity to attend a course on a voluntary basis, advising the person may seek the assistance of the department for assignment to an approved course if enrollment is desired.

(7) Persons who have accumulated less than the demerit points required for suspension or revocation on their record under the point system may be processed as provided by department rule for counseling and re-examination of drivers. Upon receipt of certification of satisfactory completion of one of the department approved courses, such person may be given a point reduction as provided in this chapter if otherwise entitled to it.

(8) No reduction in points under this section shall be permitted when a person accumulates sufficient demerit points to require suspension or revocation under this chapter.

(9) Demerit point reductions under this section shall apply only to demerit points based on convictions dated before the date of course completion. Demerit point reductions under this section resulting from attending a motorcycle rider course shall apply only to demerit points from convictions for offenses which were committed by the driver while operating a class "M" vehicle. Demerit points for convictions on or after the date of course completion shall be added to any current demerit point value.

(10) The person seeking the point reduction under this section shall be responsible for any and all fees charged for the course.
