(c) The assessment was based on the grain dealer's financial statement for the fiscal year in which the merger or acquisition under par. (b) took effect.

(d) The grain dealer's financial statement, for the fiscal year in which the merger or acquisition under par. (b) took effect, caused the sum of the grain dealer's current ratio assessment rate under s. 126.15 (2), Stats., and debt to equity ratio assessment rate under s. 126.15 (4), Stats., to increase by at least 100% compared to the preceding license year.

(e) The grain dealer's annual financial statements, for the fiscal years immediately preceding and immediately following the fiscal year in which the merger or acquisition under par. (b) took effect, show positive equity, a current ratio of at least 1.25 to 1.00 and a debt to equity ratio of no more than 3.0 to 1.0.

(f) In the license year immediately following the license year for which the grain dealer paid the assessment, the sum of the grain dealer's current ratio assessment rate under s. 126.15 (2), Stats., and debt to equity assessment rate under s. 126.15 (4), Stats., declines by at least 50% compared to the license year for which the grain dealer paid the assessment.

(g) The grain dealer requests the refund in writing, by September 1 of the grain dealer's next license year.

(2) REFUND AMOUNT. The amount of the refund under sub. (1) shall equal 75% of the difference between the assessment amount paid by the grain dealer and the assessment amount required of the grain dealer in the next license year.

If the credit exceeds the total assessment required of the grain dealer in that next license year, the department shall credit the balance in the same fashion against assessments required of the grain dealer in subsequent consecutive license years, except that the department may not grant a credit in more than 4 subsequent license years.

(b) The department may not pay any refund under sub. (1), except in the manner prescribed in par. (a). The department may not pay the refund to any person other than the grain dealer who paid the original assessment on which the refund is given.

(a) Subtract the maximum fund reimbursement from the grain dealer's estimated default exposure.

(b) Divide the result in par. (a) by the grain dealer's estimated default exposure.

(c) Multiply the result in par. (b) by the amount of the grain dealer's annual fund assessment under s. 126.15 (1), Stats., disregarding any assessment reduction under s. 126.15 (6m), Stats.

(d) Subtract, from the result in par. (c), the amount of any assessment reduction given under s. 126.15 (6m), Stats.

ATCP 99.22 Grain warehouse keeper licensing.

(1) GRAIN WAREHOUSE CAPACITY. (a) The capacity of a grain warehouse, for purposes of ch. 126, Stats., is the sum of the capacities of the grain bins comprising that grain warehouse. To calculate the capacity of each grain bin, divide the number of cubic feet in that bin by 1.244 cubic feet per bushel and then multiply the result by the appropriate pack factor under par. (b). If not all walls of the grain bin are vertical, calculate the capacity of each vertical foot of the bin and add those capacities to obtain the total capacity of the bin.

(b) The pack factor under par. (a) is shown in the following table, based on the shape of the grain bin as viewed from above and the bushels per foot calculated according to par. (c). If not all walls of the grain bin are vertical, determine the pack factor for each vertical foot of the grain bin based on the bushels per foot for that vertical foot and the horizontal cross-sectional shape of the grain bin at that level.

(c) To calculate bushels per foot, for purposes of par. (b), divide the number of square feet in the floor of the grain bin by 1.244 cubic feet per bushel. If not all walls of the grain bin are vertical, calculate bushels per foot for each vertical foot of the grain bin based on the number of square feet in a horizontal cross-section of the grain bin at that level.

(d) The grain warehouse keeper's financial statement, for the fiscal year in which the merger or acquisition under par. (b) The department may not pay any refund under sub. (1), except in the manner prescribed in par. (a). The department may not pay the refund to any person other than the grain warehouse keeper who paid the original assessment on which the refund is given.
