The warden may authorize movement to other areas, including religious services, medical appointments, showers, and visits. Building confinement may be imposed for a period of 1 to 30 days.

(4) ROOM OR CELL CONFINEMENT. During the hours of confinement, the inmate may not leave the inmate's assigned living area without specific permission. Transfer to another institution, release from incarceration, or release from custody of the department shall not terminate the inmate's obligation to pay ordered restitution. (5) If the security director finds that testifying would pose a risk of harm to the witness, the hearing officer may consider a confidential statement signed under oath from that witness without revealing the witness's identity or a signed statement from an employee getting the statement from that witness. The hearing officer shall reveal the contents of the statement to the accused inmate, except the hearing officer may edit or summarize the statement to avoid revealing the identity of the witness. The hearing officer may question a confidential witness if the witness is available.

(8) After determining which witnesses shall be called for the accused inmate, staff shall notify the inmate of the decision in writing.

(9) Witnesses other than inmates or employees may not attend hearings but the staff representative with the hearing officer's permission may contact them. The hearing officer may designate a staff member to interview the witnesses and report to the hearing officer.

(b) The warden may assign a different staff member to serve as the inmate's advocate if the inmate establishes the assigned advocate has a conflict of interest in the case.

History: Cr. Register, December, 2000, No. 540, eff. 1-1-01.

DOC 303.81 Due process hearing: witnesses.

(1) The accused may directly or through an advocate make a request to the security office for witnesses to appear at the major violation hearing, including requests for the appearance of the staff member who signed the conduct report. Except for good cause, an inmate may present no more than 2 witnesses in addition to the reporting staff member or members. The inmate shall make this request within 2 days of the service of notice when no advocate is assigned and within 2 days of the initial contact by the advocate when an advocate is assigned. The security director may waive the time limits for good cause.

(2) After all witness requests have been received, the security director shall review them to determine whether the witnesses possess relevant information and shall be called.

(3) Witnesses requested by the accused who are staff or inmates shall attend the disciplinary hearing unless one of the following exist:

- (a) The risk of harm to the witness if the witness testifies.
- (b) The testimony is irrelevant to the question of guilt or innocence.
- (c) The testimony is merely cumulative of other evidence and would unduly prolong the hearing.

(4) If a witness is unavailable to testify, the adjustment committee may consider a written statement, a transcript of an oral statement, or a tape-recorded statement. Unavailability means death, transfer, release, hospitalization, or escape in the case of an inmate; death, illness, vacation, no longer being employed at that location, or being on a different shift in the case of a staff member. The adjustment committee may consider a written statement, a transcript of an oral statement, or a tape-recorded statement if it determines that there is cause for the witness not to testify.

(5) If the institution finds that testifying would pose a risk of harm to the witness, the committee may consider a corroborated, signed statement under oath from that witness without revealing the witness's identity or a corroborated signed statement from a staff member getting the statement from that witness. The adjustment committee shall reveal the contents of the statement to the accused inmate, though the adjustment committee may edit the statement to avoid revealing the identity of the witness. The committee may question the witnesses, if they are otherwise available. Two anonymous statements by different persons may be used to corroborate each other. A statement can be corroborated in either of the following ways:

- (a) By other evidence which substantially corroborates the facts alleged in the statement such as an eyewitness account by a staff member or circumstantial evidence.
- (b) By evidence of a very similar violation by the same person.

(6) If it is not possible to get a signed statement in accordance with subs. (4) and (5), the hearing officer may consider other evidence of what the witness would say if present.

(7) After determining which witnesses will be called for the accused inmate, staff shall notify the inmate of the decision in writing.

(8) Witnesses other than inmates or staff may not attend hearings but advocates with the hearing officer's permission may contact them. The adjustment committee may designate a staff member to interview any such witness and report to the committee.

(2) No person who has substantial involvement in an incident, which is the subject of a hearing, may serve on the committee for that hearing. Committee members shall determine the subject matter of the hearing in advance in order to allow replacement of committee members if necessary and thereby avoid the necessity of postponing the hearing.

(3) An adjustment committee may hold a hearing even if the inmate has waived due process.

(4) When a single hearing officer is sitting on the adjustment committee pursuant to sub. (1), or after the waiver of due process, the hearing officer has the same authority as given the adjustment committee under this chapter.

DOC 303.83 Sentencing considerations. In deciding the sentence for a violation or group of violations, the supervisor making summary disposition or the adjustment committee or hearing officer who is holding the hearing may consider any of the following:

- (1) The inmate's overall disciplinary record, especially during the last year.

- (3) Whether the alleged violation created a risk of serious disruption at the institution or in the community.
- (4) Whether the alleged violation created a risk of serious injury to another person.
- (5) The value of the property involved, if the alleged violation was actual or attempted damage to property, misuse of property, possession of money, gambling, unauthorized transfer of property, soliciting staff or theft.
- (6) Whether the inmate was actually aware that the inmate was committing a crime or offense at the time of the offense.
- (7) The motivation for the offense.
- (8) The inmate's attitude toward the offense and toward the victim, if any.
- (9) Mitigating factors, such as coercion, family difficulties which may have created anxiety and any special circumstances.
- (10) Whether the offense created a risk to the security of the institution, inmates, staff or the community.
- (11) Any other relevant factors.

- (i) A guilty finding on any conduct report designated major for any reason in this chapter may result in one or more major penalties.

History: Cr. Register, December, 2000, No. 540, eff. 1-1-01.

DOC 303.85 Recordkeeping. (1) The Department may keep records of disciplinary infractions in an inmate's case record only in the following situations:

- (a) If the inmate was found guilty by summary disposition procedure.

Note: See s. DOC 303.74.

- (b) If the inmate was found guilty by a hearing officer or an adjustment committee. The institution shall remove records if an appeal is successful except a conduct report entry may remain on a warning card as it still constitutes a warning.

Note: See s. DOC 303.82.

(2) The department may keep conduct reports which have been dismissed or in which the inmate was found not guilty for statistical purposes, and security reasons, but the department may not consider them in making program assignment, transfer, or parole release decisions, nor may the department include them in any inmate's case record except that a conduct report may remain on a warning card as it constitutes a warning that the conduct specified in the conduct report is a violation.

History: Cr. Register, December, 2000, No. 540, eff. 1-1-01.

DOC 303.86 Evidence. (1) (a) "Evidence" is any statement or object which could be presented at a disciplinary hearing or in a court of law, whether or not it is admissible.

- (b) Evidence is relevant if that evidence makes it appear more likely or less likely that the inmate committed the offense of which the inmate is accused.

Note: For example: an inmate is accused of threatening another inmate. Testimony that the accused inmate and the other inmate had a loud argument the day before is relevant. It indicates a possible motive for a threat and makes it appear more likely that a threat occurred. An officer testifies that the accused inmate has lied to the officer on previous occasions. This is relevant if the testimony of the accused inmate varies from the conduct report.

(2) (a) An adjustment committee or a hearing officer may consider any relevant evidence, whether or not it would be admissible in a court of law and whether or not any violation of any state law or any DOC administrative code provision occurred in the process of gathering the evidence.

- (b) An adjustment committee or a hearing officer may refuse to hear or admit relevant evidence for any of the following reasons:

1. The evidence is not reliable.

Note: For example: opinions which are not supported by factual observation; hearsay or statements made outside of the hearing; reputation of the witness.

2. The evidence, even if true, would be of marginal relevance.

Note: For example: evidence of prior acts by the accused inmate or a witness, to show that the inmate is repeating a pattern.

3. The evidence is merely cumulative of evidence already received at the hearing and is no more reliable than the already admitted evidence, for example: testimony of other inmates corroborating the accused's story, when corroboration has already occurred.

(3) If a witness is unavailable to testify, the adjustment committee may consider a written statement, a transcript of an oral statement, or a tape-recorded statement. Unavailability means death, transfer, release, hospitalization, or escape in the case of an inmate; death, illness, vacation, no longer being employed at that location, or being on a different shift in the case of a staff member. The adjustment committee may consider a written statement, a transcript of an oral statement, or a tape-recorded statement if it determines that there is cause for the witness not to testify.

(4) If the institution finds that testifying would pose a risk of harm to the witness, the committee may consider a corroborated, signed statement under oath from that witness without revealing the witness's identity or a signed statement from a staff member getting the statement from that witness. The adjustment committee shall reveal the statement to the accused inmate, though the adjustment committee may edit the statement to avoid revealing the identity of the witness. The committee may question the witnesses, if they are otherwise available. Two anonymous statements by different persons may be used to corroborate each other. A statement can be corroborated in either of the following ways:

- (a) By other evidence which substantially corroborates the facts alleged in the statement such as, eyewitness account by a staff member or circumstantial evidence.

- (b) By evidence of a very similar violation by the same person.

(5) After disposition has been reached by the adjustment committee, and if a finding of guilt results, the adjustment committee shall then forward restricted informant material to the security office for retention in the restricted security department file.

(6) The institution shall place the original conduct report and all due process documents in the inmate's case record. However, the institution shall place restricted informant reports only in the security department restricted file.

DOC 303.87 Harmless error. If staff does not adhere to a procedural requirement under this chapter, the error is harmless if it does not substantially affect a finding of guilt or the inmate's ability to provide a defense.
