Chapter H 38

LABORATORY EXAMINATIONS REQUIRING CERTIFICATION TO BE ACCEPTABLE

Section 143.15 (3), Wis. Stats.

H 38.01 Laboratory examinations

H 38.01 Laboratory examinations. The following laboratory examinations are designated as necessary for the protection of the health of

- (1) Examinations of water
  - (a) Tests for coliform bacteria
- (2) Examinations of milk
  - (a) Plate counts
  - (b) Direct microscopic counts
  - (c) Coliform plate tests

  - (d) Coliform tube tests
    (e) Methylene blue reduction tests
  - (f) Resazurin reduction tests

  - (g) Phosphatase tests(h) Residual antibiotics
- (3) Enteric bacteriological examinations
- (4) Serologic examinations for syphilis

History: 1-2-56; cr. (2) (h), Register, November, 1960, No. 59, eff. 12-1-60; cr. Register, February, 1962, No. 74, eff. 7-1-62.