DWD 140.01 Hearings and appeals. (1) APPEAL RIGHTS. Any party to a determination issued under s. 108.09, 108.095 or 108.10, Stats., has the right to an appeal. An appeal as to any matter in a determination is a request for hearing and shall be filed with an appeal tribunal by the appellant or its representative. An appeal is filed with an appeal tribunal when it is submitted to a hearing office or public employment office in an agent state under sub. (2) (b). Each determination issued under s. 108.09, 108.095 or 108.10, Stats., shall specify the time limit within which any appeal is required to be filed under ch. 108, Stats.

(2) TIME LIMIT AND METHOD FOR FILING. (a) An appeal shall be filed after a copy of the determination is electronically delivered, mailed or given to a party, whichever first occurs, as specified under s. 108.09, 108.095 or 108.10, Stats. If a party first receives a determination after the statutory appeal period has expired and through no fault of that party, the statutory appeal period as specified under s. 108.09, 108.095 or 108.10, Stats., shall extend from the date the party receives the determination. An appeal received within these time limits is timely filed. If the deadline for filing an appeal falls on a Saturday, Sunday, any of the holidays enumerated under ss. 230.35 (4) (a) and 995.20, Stats., or any other day on which mail is not delivered by the United States postal service, then the deadline shall be extended to include the next business day.

2. If the appeal was mailed and bears only a United States postal service postmark, on the date of that postmark.

3. If the appeal was mailed and bears both a United States postal service postmark and a private meter mark, on the date of the United States postal service postmark.

4. If the appeal was mailed and bears only a private meter mark, on the date of the of the private meter mark.

5. If the appeal was mailed and bears no United States postal service postmark, no private meter mark, or an illegible mark, 2 business days before the date the appeal was actually received by a hearing office.

6. If the appeal was sent using a delivery service other than the United States postal service, on the date a hearing office actually receives the appeal.

7. If the appeal was filed by facsimile transmission, the date the facsimile is actually received by a hearing office is presumed to be the date of transmission.

DWD 140.02 Representation of parties. Any party may appear on the party's own behalf at any hearing under this chapter or appear with or by a representative. The representative shall be presumed to have full authority to act on behalf of the party, including the authority to file or withdraw an appeal. The representative shall have authority to act on behalf of the party until the party or the representative terminates the representative's authorization and notifies the department that such representation has ended. No attorney whose license is suspended or who has been otherwise disbarred and prohibited from practicing law by the courts or bar association of any state may be allowed to act as a representative at any hearing under this chapter.

DWD 140.04 Failure to file a timely appeal. (1) The hearing office may schedule a hearing on the question of whether a late appeal was for a reason beyond the appellant's control. The hearing office may also schedule a provisional hearing on any matter in the determination at the same time as the hearing on the appellant's late appeal.

(2) The appeal tribunal shall issue a decision which makes ultimate findings of fact and conclusions of law as to whether or not the appellant's late appeal was for a reason beyond the appellant's control. If the appeal tribunal decides this question in favor of the appellant, the same or another appeal tribunal shall then make ultimate findings of fact and conclusions of law on the merits of the case. If the appeal tribunal decides that the late appeal was late for a reason within the appellant's control, the appeal tribunal shall dismiss the appeal.

History: Cr. Register, November, 1985, No. 359, eff. 12-1-85; am. (3), Register, November, 1988, No. 395, eff. 12-1-88; r. and recr., Register, June, 1997, No. 498, eff. 7-1-97; CR 18-033: am. (2) Register May 2019 No. 761, eff. 6-1-19.

DWD 140.05 Withdrawal of appeal and retraction.

(1) An appellant may withdraw an appeal at any time before the issuance of a decision on the merits by notifying the hearing office or by choosing not to continue to participate in a hearing. The appeal tribunal shall issue a withdrawal decision after determining that an appeal has been withdrawn.

(2) An appellant may submit a request to retract its withdrawal and reinstate an appeal. The retraction request shall be in writing and state the reason for the request. The appeal tribunal may not grant a request to retract a withdrawal unless the request establishes good cause for the retraction and is received within 21 days after the withdrawal decision was electronically delivered or mailed to the appellant.

(3) If the hearing office receives a retraction request before the issuance of a withdrawal decision and the request establishes good cause for the retraction, the appeal tribunal shall acknowledge the request in writing to the appellant. If a timely retraction request is received by the hearing office after issuance of the withdrawal decision and the request establishes good cause for the retraction, the appeal tribunal shall issue a decision setting aside the withdrawal decision and the hearing office shall schedule another hearing.

(4) If the hearing office receives a retraction request before or after the issuance of a withdrawal decision and the request does not establish good cause for the retraction, the appeal tribunal shall deny the request in writing to the appellant.

History: Cr. Register, November, 1985, No. 359, eff. 12-1-85; am. (1) to (3), cr. (4), Register, June, 1997, No. 498, eff. 7-1-97; CR 18-033: am. (1) to (4) Register May 2019 No. 761, eff. 6-1-19.

(2) The notice of hearing shall state the time and place of the hearing, the department's statutory authority for convening the hearing and the issues to be heard. The hearing office shall electronically deliver or mail the notice of hearing to the last-known address of each party not less than 6 calendar days before the hearing, unless all parties waive the notice requirement.

(3) The appeal tribunal may receive evidence and render a decision on issues not listed on the notice of hearing if all parties are notified at the hearing and do not object.

(4) The hearing office may consolidate, for hearing or decision, issues involving the same parties or issues involving more than one appellant or respondent and arising out of the same or similar circumstances.

DWD 140.07 Prehearing conference. (1) After an appeal is filed, the appeal tribunal may direct the parties to appear before the appeal tribunal for a prehearing conference. In determining whether a prehearing conference is necessary, the appeal tribunal may consider any of the following criteria:

- (a) The complexity of issues.
- (b) The number of possible witnesses.
- (c) Documentary evidence.
- (d) The number of parties involved.
- (e) Other facts which would tend to prolong the hearing.

(2) Prehearing conferences may be conducted in person, by telephone or by videoconference. The date and time for the prehearing conference shall be set by the hearing office. Parties shall have at least 10 calendar days' notice of the prehearing conference. The appeal tribunal may adjourn the conference or order additional prehearing conferences.

(4) If a party fails to appear or is unprepared to participate in a prehearing conference, the appeal tribunal may conduct a conference and enter the prehearing order without participation by the party.

History: Cr. Register, June, 1997, No. 498, eff. 7-1-97; CR 18-033: am. (1) (intro.), (2), (3) (intro.), (4) Register May 2019 No. 761, eff. 6-1-19.

DWD 140.08 Postponement of hearings. (1) A party who requests a postponement of a hearing shall notify the hearing office as soon as the party becomes aware that a postponement is necessary. Unreasonable delay in requesting a postponement may be the basis for denial of the request.

(2) No postponements may be granted for the mere convenience of a party. All parties are expected to arrange time off from their everyday affairs, including management duties, work, and school, to attend hearings. The hearing office or the appeal tribunal scheduled to conduct the hearing may grant a postponement only for an exceptional reason. An exceptional reason may include any of the following circumstances:

- (a) Serious illness of a party or a necessary witness.
- (b) Death of an immediate family member of a party or a necessary witness.

- (e) A business meeting of a necessary witness which was scheduled before receipt of the hearing notice and cannot be rescheduled.

DWD 140.09 Access to hearing files; limited discovery; inspection of records. (1) PRE-HEARING STAGE. (a) The hearing office shall compile a hearing file for every case in which a request for hearing has been received which shall contain the papers, documents and departmental records relating to the issue of the hearing. Before the scheduled date of the hearing, a party to a hearing may inspect the hearing file and procure copies of file contents during regular hearing office hours at the hearing office or other convenient location approved by the hearing office. If requested, the hearing office may electronically deliver or mail copies of file contents to a party. The department may allow such inspection or release of file contents to a party's representative, union agent or legislator, as prescribed under s. DWD 149.03 (2).

(b) Unless the appeal tribunal orders otherwise, the sole means of discovery available to a party or party's representative before a hearing is inspection of the hearing file and procurement of copies of file contents. The appeal tribunal may also order a pre-hearing conference under s. DWD 140.07. The provisions of ch. 804, Stats., do not apply to hearings under ss. 108.09, 108.095 and 108.10, Stats.

(c) The appeal tribunal may deny a request to inspect the hearing file or procure copies of file contents on the day of the hearing if the inspection or procurement would delay or interfere with the hearing.

(2) HEARING STAGE. At the hearing, evidence and exhibits are open to inspection by any party or party's representative except that the appeal tribunal may conduct a closed inspection of evidence and exhibits if the interests of justice so require. The appeal tribunal may sequester from the hearing any person, party or representative as part of the closed inspection. The appeal tribunal may also issue a protective order to prohibit the parties or the parties' representatives from disclosing any evidence and exhibits listed as confidential in the protective order if the interests of justice so require.

(3) POST HEARING STAGE. After the hearing is concluded, a party or a party's representative may inspect any hearing file contents that the party or party's representative may inspect under subs. (1) and (2), and also the hearing recording, written synopsis of testimony, and any transcript that is prepared at the department's direction. Any person who is not a party or party's representative at the hearing may inspect only the following and only if personally identifiable information, as defined in s. 19.62 (5), Stats., has been redacted from the documents:

- (a) The initial determination.
- (b) The exhibits submitted and marked as exhibits at the hearing, whether or not received by the appeal tribunal.
- (c) The appeal tribunal decision issued for the hearing.
- (d) The hearing recording.
- (e) The written synopsis of testimony.
- (f) The transcript of the testimony, if one is prepared at the department's direction.

Note: Under s. 19.62 (5), Stats., "Personally identifiable information" means information that can be associated with a particular individual through one or more identifiers or other information or circumstances.

(4) CONFIDENTIALITY OF CERTAIN RECORDS AT ALL STAGES OF HEARING. (a) Notwithstanding subs. (1) to (3), neither an employing unit which is a party to a hearing nor its representative may inspect:

1. The individual's unemployment insurance record as that record relates to work for another employing unit unless the appeal tribunal approves a request.
2. Department memoranda concerning unemployment tax litigation strategy.
3. The investigation reports of department auditors concerning the status and liability of employing units under ch. 108, Stats.

(b) Notwithstanding subs. (1) to (3), the appeal tribunal may declare all or parts of documents or other material that contains records or preserves information that the appeal tribunal examined in a closed inspection under sub. (2) to be, in whole or in part, confidential and closed to inspection by one or more parties, representatives or other persons.

(c) Notwithstanding subs. (1) to (3), evidence and exhibits declared to be confidential under a protective order issued by the appeal tribunal under sub. (2) are closed to inspection as stated in the order.

(d) Notwithstanding subs. (1) to (3), no party, party's representative or other person, except a statutory reviewing body, as specified under ss. 108.09, 108.095 and 108.10, Stats., may inspect the notes made by the appeal tribunal at the hearing.

DWD 140.10 Subpoenas; issuance and service; modification. (1) Only the department, an appeal tribunal or a party's attorney of record may issue a subpoena to compel the attendance of any witness or the production of any books, papers, documents or other tangible things. A party may request, as soon as possible after receipt of the hearing notice, that the appeal tribunal issue a subpoena. Subpoenas issued by the department or an appeal tribunal shall be issued on completed department forms.

(2) Subpoenas shall only be issued when necessary to ensure fair adjudication of the issues of the hearing. The department or an appeal tribunal may refuse to issue any subpoena if any of the following occur:

- (a) The evidence sought is not relevant or material.
- (b) The evidence sought is hearsay.
- (c) The evidence sought is unduly cumulative or repetitive of other evidence to be presented by the party.
- (d) The evidence requested discloses business secrets.

(3) A party whose request for a subpoena has been denied may, at the hearing, request the presiding appeal tribunal to issue the subpoena. If the appeal tribunal grants the request for a subpoena, the appeal tribunal may adjourn the hearing to allow sufficient time for service of and compliance with the subpoena.

(4) The appeal tribunal scheduled to conduct a hearing for which a subpoena has been issued may quash or modify the subpoena if the appeal tribunal determines that the witness or tangible things subpoenaed are not necessary to a fair adjudication of the issues of the hearing or that the subpoena has not been served as required under sub. (5).

(5) The party at whose request a subpoena is issued shall serve the subpoena as provided under ch. 885 and s. 805.07 (5), Stats., and pay the witness fees and travel expenses specified under s. DWD 140.20 to the subpoenaed witness at or before the time of service. An attorney issuing a subpoena shall comply with the requirements of s. 108.14 (2m), Stats.

(6) The department may subpoena a witness for a party if the party is unable to prepay the witness fees and travel expenses. The department shall pay a witness as provided under s. DWD 140.20.

(7) If any witness fails to comply with a subpoena issued under this section, the department may petition a judge or court commissioner for a writ of attachment under s. 885.12, Stats.

(1), (2) (intro.), (3), (4) Register May 2019 No. 761, eff. 6–1–19.

DWD 140.11 Telephone and videoconference hearings. (1) The appeal tribunal may conduct hearings in whole or in part by telephone or videoconference when it is impractical for the appeal tribunal to conduct an in-person hearing, when necessary to ensure a prompt hearing or when one or more of the parties would be required to travel an unreasonable distance to the hearing location. When 2 or more parties are involved, the evidence shall be presented during the same hearing unless the appeal tribunal determines that it is impractical to do so. A party scheduled to appear by telephone or videoconference may appear in person at the appeal tribunal's location. The appeal tribunal may postpone or adjourn a hearing initially scheduled as a telephone or videoconference hearing and reschedule the hearing for an in-person appearance if circumstances make it impractical to conduct a telephone or videoconference hearing.

(2) If the appellant is scheduled to testify by telephone or videoconference and fails to provide the hearing office with the appellant's telephone number or the name and telephone number of the appellant's representative or fails to connect to the videoconference within a reasonable time before the hearing and if the appeal tribunal has made reasonable attempts to contact the appellant, the appeal tribunal shall dismiss the appeal. If the respondent fails to provide the hearing office with the telephone number or the name and telephone number of the respondent's representative, or the representative fails to connect to the videoconference before the hearing, and if the appeal tribunal has made reasonable attempts to contact the respondent, the appeal tribunal shall proceed with the hearing.

(3) If the appellant is scheduled to appear by telephone or videoconference, the appeal tribunal shall, within 10 minutes after the starting time for the hearing, attempt to place at least two calls to the appellant's telephone number of record or the telephone number furnished to the hearing office. One of the calls shall be attempted at or near the end of the 10 minute period unless the appeal tribunal determines after reasonable efforts that the appellant cannot be reached at that number. If, within 10 minutes after the starting time for the hearing, neither the appellant nor the appellant's representative can be reached at the telephone number of record or the telephone number furnished to the hearing office, then the appeal tribunal shall dismiss the appeal.

(4) If the respondent is scheduled to appear by telephone or videoconference, the appeal tribunal shall proceed with the hearing if, within 10 minutes after the starting time for the hearing, neither the respondent nor the respondent's representative can be reached at the respondent's telephone number of record or the telephone number furnished to the hearing office. The appeal tribunal may refuse to allow a respondent to testify if the appeal tribunal is unable to reach the respondent or the respondent's representative and neither the respondent nor the respondent's representative have contacted the hearing office within 10 minutes after the starting time for the hearing. The respondent is considered to have failed to appear for the hearing if the appeal tribunal so refuses. The respondent may petition such a finding under s. 108.09 (6), Stats.

(5) All parties shall remain available for the hearing up to one hour after the scheduled starting time in the event of a delay in the prior hearings or other unforeseen circumstances. If the respondent cannot be contacted by telephone or connect by videoconference within one hour of the scheduled starting time of the hearing, the appeal tribunal shall proceed with the hearing if the appellant has appeared. If the appellant cannot be contacted within one hour of the scheduled starting time of the hearing, the appeal tribunal shall dismiss the appeal.

(6) The hearing office shall mark and electronically deliver or mail the potential exhibits for a telephone or videoconference hearing from the hearing file to all parties as soon as possible before the date of the telephone or videoconference hearing. A party may submit additional documents as potential exhibits by simultaneously electronically delivering or mailing those documents to the hearing office and copies to each party. A party may submit potential exhibits which are not documents in the manner designated by the hearing office to which the case is assigned. The appeal tribunal may refuse to consider any documents not received by the hearing office or each party at least 3 days before the hearing.

DWD 140.12 Stipulations. (1) After an appeal is filed, the parties may stipulate to relevant facts and request that the stipulation be used in lieu of a hearing. The appeal tribunal may accept the stipulation in lieu of a hearing only if all of the following occur:

- (a) The parties entered into the stipulation voluntarily.
- (b) The stipulation contains all the relevant and necessary facts to resolve the issues as determined by the appeal tribunal.
- (c) The stipulation is in writing and signed, or electronically executed, by the parties.

(2) If the appeal tribunal does not accept the stipulation of the parties, a hearing shall be held unless the appeal tribunal provides the parties with additional opportunities to submit an acceptable stipulation.

(3) At the hearing, the appeal tribunal may accept a partial stipulation of relevant facts not in dispute if the stipulation is entered into the hearing record and is agreed to on the record by the parties.
