DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE

DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE 14e visions of section 207.04 (g) and (h) do not prevent the abatement of premium out of surplus accumulated from nonparticipating business provided that such abatement of premium shall be fair and equitable to pollcyholders and for the best interest of the company and its policy-holders. This statute is the only authorization for payment of dividends from the surplus accumulated from nonparticipating business. The im-pact of this statute is that any distribution of surplus accumulated from nonparticipating pulses, such be fair and equitable to both par-ticipating and nonparticipating policyholders and for the best interest of the company and the participating and nonparticipating policyhold-terms or by the net result of the application of its terms that the policyholder will participate to an extent that is equitable with the participating pulse, such policyholder the nonpartici-pating policy can only participate to an extent that is equitable with and not misrepresent the rights of the policyholder the nonparticipating policy should have the same provision for participation in the earnings on the nonparticipating business. If such a provision were to be inserted become participating policies, such policies then, by their own terms, become participating policies and the distribution of dividends would advantage would not exist. It can be concluded that participating policy forms issued by the statute for distribution of surplus accumulations. These appears to be substantial evidence that if the profit-sharing or sparlue-sharing type of policy were to be considered as complying with ite insurance statutes it would then be considered as complying with ite on a security and subject to regulation as such. There appears to be substantial evidence that if the profit-sharing or spribus-sharing type of policy were to be considered as complying with ite of a security and subject to regulation as such. There appears to be substantial evidence that if the profit-sharing or spripus-sharing typ

Ins 2.09 Separate and distinct representations of life insurance. (1) PURPOSE. The interests of policyholders and purchasers of life insurance which is sold in connection with any security must be safeguarded by providing them with clear and unambiguous written proposals and statements in which all material relating to life insurance is set forth separately from any other material. This rule implements and interprets sections 201.05 (3) (a); 201.53 (1); (2), (8), and (13); 206.41 (11) (a) 7 and 8; 206.51; 207.04 (1) (a), (f) and (h); and 208.33, Wis. Stats., by establishing minimum standards for the form of proposals and statements used to solicit, service, or collect premiums for life insurance which is sold in connection with a mutual fund or other security.

(2) SCOPE. This rule shall apply to the solicitation of, negotiation for, proceurement of, or joint billing of any insurance specified in section 201.04 (3), Wis. Stats., within this state or involving a resident of this state where it is known to the insurer or the insurance agent that the sale of any mutual fund or other security has been, may become, or is a part of any such transaction.

(3) DEFINITIONS. For the purposes of this rule:

(a) "Proposal" includes any estimate, illustration, or statement which involves a representation of any premium charge, dividends, terms, or benefits of any policy of life insurance within subsection (2).

(b) "Life insurance" includes life insurance, annuities, and endowments.

(4) RESPONSIBILITY OF INSURER AND AGENT, No insurer and no insurance agent shall make, in connection with any transaction within Register, October, 1963, No. 94

subsection (2), a proposal or billing other than in accordance with this rule. Every insurer must inform its agents involved with the solicitation of life insurance on residents of this state of the requirements of this rule.

(5) WRITTEN PROPOSAL. In any solicitation or sale within subsection (2), the prospect or policyholder must be furnished with a copy of a clear and unambiguous written proposal not later than at the time the solicitation or proposal is made.

(6) CONTENTS OF PROPOSAL. Any proposal referred to in this rule must:

(a) Be dated and signed by the insurance agent or by the insurer if no agent is involved;

(b) State the name of the company in which the life insurance is to be written;

(c) Be accurate and complete;

(d) Contain no misrepresentations or false, deceptive or misleading statements;

(e) Show the premium charge for life insurance separately from any other charge;

(f) If values which may accrue prior to the death of the insured are involved in the presentation, show the value of the life insurance separately from any other values;

(g) Show, if it is involved in the presentation, the amount of the death benefit for the life insurance separately from any other benefit which may accrue upon the death of the insured;

(h) Set forth all matters pertaining to life insurance separately from any matter not pertaining to life insurance;

(i) Contain only such representations as will accurately reflect the actual conditions applicable to the proposed insured.

(7) STATEMENTS TO BE SEPARATE. Any bill, statement, or representation sent or delivered to any prospect or policyholder must show the premium charge for the life insurance and any other information mentioned concerning life insurance separately from any other charges or values shown in the same billing.

(8) VIOLATION. Any violation of this rule shall be deemed to be a misrepresentation of the nature of the life insurance involved.

(9) SEPARABILITY. If any provision of this rule shall be held invalid, the remainder of the rule shall not be affected thereby.
