SECTION 11. 95.31 (4) of the statutes is amended to read:

8 95.31 (4) In the event of a major or serious outbreak of dangerous diseases 9 affecting the health of domestic animals requiring special control measures, the 10 department may request the joint committee on finance to release funds 11 appropriated under s. 20.115 (2) (b) as needed to conduct emergency control 12programs independently or in cooperation with federal or local units of government 13 and, subject to s. 95.36, to pay indemnities on animals of species raised primarily to 14 produce food for human consumption, including farm-raised deer, condemned and 15slaughtered or destroyed under the emergency control programs. For all indemnities 16 paid under this subsection, the state shall pay two-thirds of the difference between 17the net salvage value and the appraised value of an animal, except that no payment 18 may exceed the maximum amount prescribed by the department for the species type 19 of the destroyed animal $1,500 for an animal.

SECTION 12. 95.32 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

95.32 Appraised value. (1) The department shall determine the appraised value of an animal that is destroyed under s. 95.21 (4) (b), 95.25, 95.26, 95.27 or 95.31
(3) or (4) if the animal's owner is eligible for an indemnity.

(2) Except as provided in sub. (3), the appraised value for an animal that is of an animal type that is frequently sold at public auction shall equal the average price

1 paid for a commercial grade animal of the same animal type at public auction sales $\mathbf{2}$ during a period specified by the department. 3 (3) The appraised value of a registered purebred animal of an animal type that 4 is frequently sold at public auction shall equal 125% of the amount determined under 5 sub. (2) for that animal type. 6 (4) Using a method specified under sub. (5) (c), the department shall determine 7 the appraised value of an animal of an animal type that is not frequently sold at 8 public auction. 9 (5) (a) The department shall promulgate rules specifying animal types for the purposes of this section. The animal types may be based on characteristics of animals that include species, gender and age. The rules shall specify whether each animal type is frequently sold at public auction.

(b) The department shall promulgate rules specifying the period of public auction sales that will be used in the appraisal of each animal type to which sub. (2) applies. The period may not begin more than 6 months before the date on which the department makes the appraisal.

(c) The department shall promulgate rules specifying methods for determining the appraised value of animals of animal types that are not frequently sold at public auction. The methods shall be as consistent as possible with the method under sub.

21 SECTION 13. 95.35 (1) and (2) of the statutes are repealed.

22 SECTION 14. 95.35 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:
