9	(b) An erroneous exercise of discretion occurs under any of the following
10	circumstances:
11	1. The sentencing court fails to exercise discretion in making its sentencing
12	decision.

1999 – 2000 Legislature

- 2. The sentencing court fails to explain its reasoning process in making its sentencing decision.
- 3 3. The sentencing court bases its sentencing decision on clearly irrelevant or 4 improper factors.
- 5 4. The sentencing court gives too much weight to one factor in the face of other6 contravening factors in making its sentencing decision.
- 5. The sentencing court imposes a sentence that is so excessive, unusual or disproportionate to the offense as to shock the public sentiment and violate the judgment of reasonable persons concerning what is right and proper under the circumstances.
- 6. There is not substantial evidence in the record to support the reasons stated on the record under sub. (11) for the imposition of the sentence and the sentencing decision.
- (c) Paragraph (b) does not preclude an appellate court from finding that a sentencing court erroneously exercised its discretion for reasons other than those specified in par. (b).".
