14 to: creation of a Government Accountability Board, filing requirements for 15 candidates for partisan state office under the campaign finance law and 16 providing penalties.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently, the Elections Board consists of nine members. The governor appoints all of the members of the Elections Board, without confirmation by the senate, to serve for two-year terms as follows: one member is selected by the governor and one member each is designated by the chief justice of the Supreme Court, the speaker of the assembly, the senate majority leader, the minority leader in each house of the legislature, and the chief officer of each political party qualifying for a separate ballot at the September primary whose candidate for governor at the most recent gubernatorial election received at least 10 percent of the vote (currently, the Republican, Democratic, and Libertarian parties).

Currently, the Ethics Board consists of six members. Members of the Ethics Board are nominated by the governor, and with the advice and consent of the senate appointed, to serve for staggered six-year terms. All members must be U.S. citizens and residents of this state, and no member may hold any other office or employment in the government of this state or any political subdivision thereof or in any state department. In addition, no member, for one year immediately prior to the date of appointment, may have been, and no member, while serving on the Ethics Board, may become, a member of a political party, an officer or member of a committee in any partisan political club or organization, or a candidate for any partisan office.

This substitute amendment abolishes both boards and replaces them with a Government Accountability Board. Under the substitute amendment, the board is composed of seven members serving for staggered four-year terms. Four members of the board must have prosecutorial experience. One member of the board is a retired judge of a court of record in this state. All of the members are nominated by the governor and appointed with the advice and consent of the assembly and senate. Each of the members must be appointed from nominations submitted by a Government Accountability Candidate Committee, which consists of one court of appeals judge from each of the court of appeals districts. The judges are chosen by lot by the chief justice of the supreme court in the presence of the other justices. A unanimous vote of the committee is required to nominate a candidate. No member of the Government Accountability Board may hold another position that is subject to the code of ethics for state public officials or the code of ethics for local public officials. No member, for one year immediately prior to the date of appointment, may have been, and no member while serving on the board may become, a member of a political party, an officer or member of a committee in any partisan political club or organization, a candidate for any partisan office or an officer or employee of a registrant under the campaign finance law. No member may be a lobbyist or an employee of a principal (person who employs a lobbyist).

The substitute amendment creates an Enforcement Division within the Government Accountability Board. The Enforcement Division is headed by an administrator who is appointed by the executive director of the board outside the classified service for a term of not less than four years nor more than six years, expiring on September 1 of an odd-numbered year. The administrator may not be removed during his or her term except for cause.

The substitute amendment also permits the executive director to appoint up to two other division administrators outside the classified service but the substitute amendment does not authorize any new positions for the administrators. The substitute amendment transfers all members of the existing staffs of the Elections Board and Ethics Board and their positions to the Government Accountability Board. Under the substitute amendment, the staff members who have civil service rights retain those rights. The substitute amendment does not provide any funding for continued employment of the staff members, however.

The Enforcement Division is empowered to investigate violations and bring civil and criminal actions to enforce the elections, ethics, and lobbying regulation laws. Under current law, the Elections Board and Ethics Board share civil enforcement authority with district attorneys and in some cases with county boards of election commissioners, and with the attorney general; and the district attorneys, and in some cases the attorney general, exercise criminal enforcement authority. Under the substitute amendment, the Enforcement Division has independent authority to investigate violations of the elections, ethics, and lobbying regulation laws and to prosecute civil or criminal violations without the consent of the Government Accountability Board, except that the division must obtain the concurrence of the board before issuing a subpoena or obtaining a search warrant. The substitute amendment permits the Enforcement Division to request the board to appoint special counsel to investigate or prosecute violations of the law. Under the substitute amendment, the board may retain special counsel to act as an investigator in any matter. The administrator of the Enforcement Division may also investigate any matter without retention of an investigator. An investigator or the administrator must report to the board concerning an investigation at least once every 90 days, after which the investigation may continue unless the board votes to terminate it. The substitute amendment also permits the Enforcement Division to request investigatory and prosecutorial assistance from the Department of Justice and directs the Department of Justice to provide such assistance upon request. Under the substitute amendment, the Enforcement Division is bound by applicable laws, rules, formal opinions, and actions of the board, except that the division may nonacquiesce in any formal opinion of the board by publishing a notice of nonacquiescence in the Wisconsin Administrative Register. Thereafter, the division is not bound by that opinion. The substitute amendment directs the Government Accountability Board and the district attorneys to share investigatory information concerning possible violations of the elections, ethics, and lobbying regulation laws and accords precedence to the board in conducting investigations and prosecutions. If a district attorney refers to the board a matter concerning a possible criminal violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws by a state official and the board determines not to commence a criminal prosecution, the substitute amendment directs the board to report to the district attorney within 30 days of the referral specifying the reasons why it will not commence a prosecution.

The substitute amendment directs a district attorney to notify the Government Accountability Board before commencing a criminal prosecution concerning any violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws. If the board notifies the district attorney that it will not commence a criminal prosecution, or the board does not commence a criminal prosecution within 30 days after receiving the notice, the district attorney may commence the prosecution.

The substitute amendment provides that if a district attorney opens an investigation of a possible criminal violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws, the district attorney must report to the Government Accountability Board concerning the status of the investigation no later than the end of each 90-day period until the investigation is concluded. Similarly, under the substitute amendment, if a district attorney commences a criminal prosecution for a violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws, the district attorney must report to the board concerning the status of the prosecution no later than the end of each 180-day period until the prosecution is concluded. Within 30 days after receiving any report, the substitute amendment permits the board to direct the district attorney to close the investigation or to terminate the prosecution, and the district attorney must do so.

Currently, the Elections and Ethics boards have sum certain appropriations derived from state general purpose revenue. In addition, both boards finance some of their operations with program revenue. This substitute amendment repeals all appropriations to both boards and does not make any appropriations to the Government Accountability Board. Under the substitute amendment, the Government Accountability Board will be unable to operate unless funding is provided for the board by other legislation. The substitute amendment requires the board to forward the division's budget requests to the Department of Administration without change, except as concurred in by the division.

Under the substitute amendment, any person may file a sworn complaint with the division alleging a violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws. The division must investigate the complaint unless the division finds the complaint to be without merit. The substitute amendment also permits the division to investigate any violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws on its own initiative or upon direction of the board. The division may order an election official or private person to act in conformity with the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws or rules of the board, and may impose a forfeiture (civil monetary penalty) for a violation. The decision of the division may be appealed to the board or may be appealed directly to circuit court. In deciding an appeal, the board is not bound by any findings of fact or conclusions of law made by the division with respect to the matter. If the decision of the division is not appealed or if the board does not modify or reverse a decision of the division after hearing an appeal, the decision of the division becomes the decision of the board. Any decision of the board is also subject to judicial review in circuit court. If the board modifies or reverses an action of the division, the division may also seek judicial review of the board's decision. The procedure does not apply to any alleged violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws by the board or division, nor to any matter arising in connection with a recount.

Currently, a defendant in a criminal trial is tried in the county where the the defendant's crime is alleged to have been committed, except that the defendant may request the judge to move the trial to another county and the judge may grant the request if the judge believes that an impartial trial cannot be had unless the trial is moved. This substitute amendment provides that if the defendant in a criminal trial for a violation of the elections, ethics, or lobbying regulation laws is a resident of this state, the trial shall be held in circuit court for the county where the defendant resides, subject to the current exception.

Currently, opinions of the Elections Board are open to public inspection, but opinions of the Ethics Board, with limited exceptions, are closed to public inspection. However, the Ethics Board publishes summaries of its opinions without divulging information that could reveal the identity of the requester. This substitute amendment makes all opinions issued by the Government Accountability Board closed to public inspection, subject to the current exceptions for opinions issued by the Ethics Board.

The substitute amendment provides for the substitute amendment to become law on January 1, 2007, after which date the members of the Government Accountability Board may be appointed and take office. However, the existing Elections Board and Ethics Board continue in operation until June 1, 2007, subject to appropriation of money for continued operation of the boards by other legislation. Under the substitute amendment, the Government Accountability Board may not exercise administrative or enforcement authority until June 1, 2007. The substitute amendment also provides that the director of the Legislative Council Staff shall serve as executive director of the Government Accountability Board, without additional compensation, until the initial executive director of the Government Accountability Board is appointed and qualified, and may exercise all of the functions of the executive director of the Government Accountability Board, the enforcement division, and the administrator of the enforcement division.

Currently, state boards may meet in closed session to discuss the investigation of charges against specific persons. This substitute amendment provides specifically that the Government Accountability Board may meet in closed session to deliberate concerning any investigation under the board's jurisdiction.

Currently, with limited exemptions, registrants under the campaign finance law must file continuing campaign finance reports on a semiannual basis. In addition, registrants may be subject to other filing requirements if they engage in financial activity with respect to an election.

This bill provides that each candidate for a partisan state office must file an additional continuing report in April and October of each odd-numbered year and in April of each even-numbered year unless exempted from the filing requirement under current law.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

18 investigate and prosecute alleged violations of laws administered by the board 19 pursuant to all statutes granting or assigning that authority or responsibility to the 20 board. The enforcement division shall prosecute civil and criminal actions brought 21 by the board and shall assist the district attorneys and the attorney general in 22 prosecuting criminal actions referred to them by the division.

23 (b) The board may refer any matter to the enforcement division for 24 investigation. Any person may file a verified complaint with the enforcement 25 division alleging a violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19.

1 (c) 1. The board shall employ at least one full-time attorney and at least one 2 full-time staff support individual within the enforcement division. The enforcement 3 division may, with or without approval of the board, investigate or prosecute any civil 4 or criminal violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 in the 5 name of the board. The jurisdiction of the enforcement division is concurrent with 6 the jurisdiction of the board, the district attorneys, and the attorney general to 7 conduct investigations and enforce these laws. The enforcement division may 8 request authorization of the board to obtain the assistance of special counsel to 9 conduct investigations or to prosecute violations of these laws. The enforcement 10 division may also request assistance from the department of justice to conduct 11 investigations or to prosecute violations of these laws.

12 2. Upon opening or concluding an investigation of any alleged violation of chs.
13 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19, the board shall notify the district 14 attorney for the county wherein the violation is alleged to occur. Upon opening or 15 concluding an investigation of any alleged violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch.
16 13, or subch. III of ch. 19, a district attorney shall notify the board. Upon request of 17 the board or a district attorney, the board and district attorney shall each share 18 information in their possession relating to any alleged violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch.
19 III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19. If the board notifies the district attorney for any 20 county that it has opened an investigation of a violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of 21 ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 that is alleged to have occurred in that county, the district 22 attorney shall suspend any investigation of the same alleged violation that the 23 district attorney is conducting until the board notifies the district attorney that it has 24 concluded its investigation and it will not prosecute the alleged violation or there

1 elapse 30 days from the date of the board’s notification that its investigation is 2 concluded and the board does not commence a prosecution of the alleged violation.

3 3. The district attorney for any county may refer any matter concerning a 4 possible civil or criminal violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of 5 ch. 19 to the board. If the board determines not to commence a criminal prosecution 6 with respect to a matter concerning an alleged criminal violation of chs. 5 to 12, 7 subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 by an elective state official, as defined in 8 s. 13.62 (6), or a state public official, as defined in s. 19.42 (14), that is referred to the 9 board under this subdivision, the board shall, within 30 days of receipt of the referral, 10 report to the district attorney in writing specifying the reasons why it has 11 determined not to commence a criminal prosecution.

12 4. If a district attorney opens an investigation of a possible criminal violation 13 of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19, the district attorney shall 14 report to the board concerning the status of the investigation no later than the end 15 of each consecutive 90-day period, beginning on the day that the investigation is 16 opened and ending on the day that the investigation is concluded. Within 30 days 17 after receiving a report under this subdivision, the board may direct the district 18 attorney to close the investigation and the district attorney shall thereupon close the 19 investigation.

20 5. Prior to commencing any criminal prosecution with respect to an alleged 21 violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19, a district attorney 22 shall provide written notice to the board. If the board notifies the district attorney 23 in writing that it will not commence a criminal prosecution with respect to that 24 alleged violation or the board fails to commence a criminal prosecution with respect 25 to that alleged violation within 30 days after receiving notice from the district

1 attorney under this subdivision, the district attorney may commence a criminal 2 prosecution with respect to that alleged violation.

3 6. If a district attorney commences a criminal prosecution for an alleged 4 violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19, the district attorney 5 shall report to the board concerning the status of the prosecution no later than the 6 end of each consecutive 180-day period, beginning on the day that the prosecution 7 is commenced and ending on the day that the prosecution is concluded. Within 30 8 days after receiving a report under this subdivision, the board may direct the district 9 attorney to terminate the prosecution and the district attorney shall thereupon 10 terminate the prosecution.

11 7. If the board directs a district attorney to close an investigation of a person 12 under subd. 4. or to terminate a prosecution of a person under subd. 6. with respect 13 to an alleged violation of the law, the district attorney shall not open a new criminal 14 investigation or commence a new criminal prosecution of the same person with 15 respect to the same alleged violations of the law.

16 8. Each individual who is retained by the board to act as an investigator shall 17 make periodic reports to the board, as directed by the board, but in no case may the 18 interval for reporting exceed 90 days. If the administrator of the enforcement 19 division investigates any matter without retention of an investigator, the 20 administrator shall make periodic reports to the board, as directed by the board, but 21 in no case may the reporting interval exceed 90 days. If, after receiving a report, the 22 board does not vote to terminate the investigation, the investigation is continued.

23 9. Upon employment of any individual to serve as special counsel for the 24 enforcement division, the administrator of the enforcement division shall certify the 25 maximum amount provided in the employment contract to the secretary of 1 administration, and direct the department of administration to pay special counsel 2 bills related to that case within the certified amount.

3 (e) The enforcement division is bound by applicable laws, rules, formal 4 opinions, and actions of the board, except that the division may nonacquiesce in any 5 formal opinion of the board by publishing a notice of nonacquiescence in the 6 Wisconsin Administrative Register. Thereafter, the division is not bound by the 7 formal opinion in which the division nonacquiesces.

8 SECTION 9. 5.05 (3) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

9 5.05 (3) (a) The board shall upon complaint by any person or on its own motion 13 which may be grounds for civil action or criminal prosecution.

14 SECTION 10. 5.05 (3m) of the statutes is created to read:

15 5.05 (3m) CHIEF ELECTION OFFICER. The board shall designate an employee of 16 the board to serve as the chief election officer of this state.

17 SECTION 11. 5.05 (5) of the statutes is repealed.

18 SECTION 12. 5.05 (5s) (title) and (d) of the statutes are created to read:

19 5.05 (5s) (title) ACCESS TO RECORDS.

20 (d) All records of votes taken upon actions by the board are open to public 21 inspection and copying under s. 19.35.

22 SECTION 13. 5.05 (6) of the statutes is repealed.

23 SECTION 14. 5.05 (11) of the statutes is repealed.

24 SECTION 15. 5.052 of the statutes is created to read:

1 5.052 Government accountability candidate committee. (1) The 2 government accountability candidate committee shall organize whenever a vacancy 3 occurs in the membership of the board that requires a nomination to be submitted 4 to the governor under s. 15.60 (2).

5 (2) No person may be nominated by the committee unless the person receives 6 the unanimous approval of the committee.

7 (3) Except as provided in sub. (4), the committee shall submit the following 8 number of nominations:

9 (a) To fill one vacancy, 2 nominations.

10 (b) To fill 2 vacancies, 3 nominations.

11 (c) To fill 3 vacancies, 5 nominations.

16 the committee shall submit an additional nominee to the governor.

17 SECTION 16. 5.054 of the statutes is created to read:

18 5.054 Duties of the executive director. The executive director of the board 19 shall:

20 (1) Whenever a vacancy occurs on the board, call a meeting of the government 21 accountability candidate committee.

22 (2) Assist the government accountability candidate committee in the 23 performance of its functions.

24 SECTION 17. 5.066 of the statutes is created to read:

25 5.066 Complaints and decision-making procedure. (1) In this section:

1 (a) “Division” means the enforcement division of the board.

2 (b) “Election official” includes any board of election commissioners under s. 7.20 3 or governing body of a local governmental unit that has the responsibility to 4 administer the election laws.

5 (c) “Local governmental unit” has the meaning given in s. 16.97 (7).

6 (d) “Working day” has the meaning given in s. 227.01 (14).

7 (2) Any person may file a verified complaint with the division alleging a 8 violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19. The division shall 9 investigate the complaint unless the division finds the complaint to be without merit.
10 The division may, on its own motion or upon direction of the board, investigate any 11 potential violation of chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 whenever 12 the division has probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred. If the 13 division finds, by a preponderance of evidence, that a complaint is frivolous, the 14 division may order the complainant to forfeit not more than the greater of $500 or 15 the expenses incurred in investigating the complaint. The attorney general, when 16 so requested by the division, shall institute proceedings to recover any forfeiture 17 incurred under this subsection that is not paid by the person against whom it is 18 assessed.

19 (3) If the complaint concerns a question as to whether an election official or a 20 private person is acting in conformity with the law or rules of the board, the person 21 filing the complaint shall serve a copy of the complaint upon that official or private 22 person and that official or private person shall be a party to the case. An election 23 official or private person may move to dismiss a complaint if it is clearly without 24 merit. If the division finds, in response to a motion, that a complaint is clearly 25 without merit, the division shall dismiss the complaint.

1 (4) If the division does not dismiss a complaint, the division shall issue a 2 proposed decision, which shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law and 3 may include an order under sub. (5).

4 (5) The division may order an election official or a private person to act in 5 conformity with chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 or rules of the 6 board, or may, by order, impose a civil penalty under s. 11.60 or 12.60 (1) (c) or (d), 7 13.69, or 19.579 for any violation of ch. 11 or 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of 8 ch. 19 for which a civil penalty is applicable.

9 (6) Subject to the procedures under this subsection, the division may, in the 10 discharge of its functions under this section and after providing notice to any party 11 who is the subject of an investigation, subpoena and bring before it any person and 12 require the production of any papers, books, or other records relevant to an 13 investigation. Prior to issuing a subpoena or obtaining a search warrant, the division 14 shall submit a written request for this purpose to the board. If the board does not 15 disapprove the request within 10 days of receiving the request, the division may 16 issue the subpoena or obtain the search warrant. A circuit court may by order permit 17 the inspection and copying of the accounts and the depositor's and loan records at any 18 financial institution, as defined in s. 705.01 (3), doing business in this state to obtain 19 evidence of any violation of ch. 11 or 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 20 upon a showing by the division of probable cause to believe there is a violation and 21 that such accounts and records may have a substantial relation to the violation. In 22 the discharge of its functions under this section, the division may cause the 23 deposition of witnesses to be taken in the manner prescribed for taking depositions 24 in civil actions in circuit court.

1 (7) If the division issues a decision under sub. (4) that contains an order under 2 sub. (5), the order is effective upon service of the order notwithstanding any appeal 3 to the board under sub. (8) or to circuit court under sub. (11), except that the division 4 may stay such an order pending an appeal.

5 (8) Any party aggrieved by a proposed decision under sub. (4) may appeal the 6 proposed decision to the board within 20 days after service of a copy of the decision 7 upon the party. If no appeal is filed within 20 days of service of a copy of a proposed 8 decision upon each party to the case in which the decision is made, the decision is 9 final and becomes the decision of the board. In appealing a decision of the division, 10 the appellant shall indicate in its appeal whether the appellant contests any finding 11 of fact made by the division. If an appellant does not contest a finding of fact, the 12 validity of which is reasonably ascertainable to the appellant at the time of the 13 appeal, that finding is conclusive against the appellant in all subsequent 14 proceedings.

15 (9) If a proposed decision of the division is appealed to the board, the board shall 16 hear the appeal at its next meeting occurring at least 3 working days after the appeal 17 is received by the board. In reviewing the decision of the division, the board is not 18 bound by any finding of fact that is contested or any conclusion of law made by the 19 division. After hearing the appeal, the board may issue a decision, which shall 20 include findings of fact and conclusions of law. In its decision, the board may affirm, 21 modify, or reverse an order issued by the division under sub. (5), and may order an 22 election official or a private person to act in conformity with chs. 5 to 12, subch. III 23 of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 or rules of the board, or may, by order, impose a civil 24 penalty under s. 11.60, 12.60 (1) (c) or (d), 13.69, or 19.579 for any violation of ch. 11 25 or 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch. III of ch. 19 for which a civil penalty is applicable.

1 If the board does not modify or reverse a decision of the division at the meeting at 2 which an appeal of a decision is heard, the decision is affirmed.

3 (10) If a person aggrieved by a decision issued under sub. (4) that contains an 4 order under sub. (5) appeals the decision to the board and the board modifies the 5 order, the modified order is effective upon service, except that the division may stay 6 such an order pending judicial review under s. 227.57.

7 (11) The defendant may appeal any decision of the division or the board in a 8 contested case arising under this section as provided in s. 227.57. If the board 9 modifies or reverses an order issued by the division under sub. (5), the division may 10 seek judicial review of the decision. In seeking judicial review of a decision of the 11 division or the board, the appellant shall indicate in its petition for review whether 12 the appellant contests any finding of fact made by the division or the board that is 13 not conclusive against the appellant. If the appellant does not contest any finding 14 of fact made by the division or the board, that finding is conclusive against the 15 appellant.

16 (12) When the enforcement division issues an order imposing a forfeiture 17 under sub. (2) or s. 11.60, 12.60 (1) (c) or (d), 13.69, or 19.579 that is not appealed in 18 a timely manner under sub. (8) or (11), or when the board issues an order imposing 19 a forfeiture under sub. (2) or s. 11.60, 12.60 (1) (c) or (d), 13.69, or 19.579 and the 20 period allowed under s. 227.57 for judicial review of the order expires, the division 21 or board may file a copy of its order with the clerk of circuit court for Dane County.
22 The clerk shall thereupon enter the order in the judgment and lien docket in the same 23 manner as provided for entry of civil judgments under s. 806.10. The division or 24 board may also enter the order on the judgment and lien docket of any other county

1 under s. 806.13. The order may be enforced and satisfied in the same manner as 2 provided for enforcement and satisfaction of civil judgments.

3 (13) If the division or the board issues an order requiring an election official 4 or private person to act in conformity with chs. 5 to 12, subch. III of ch. 13, or subch.
5 III of ch. 19 or rules of the board, the division may file an action in circuit court for 6 any county where the official or other person is present to obtain relief requiring 7 compliance with the order.

8 (14) (a) This section does not apply to any complaint brought by an election 9 official or private person in which the board or the division is alleged to have violated 10 the law.

11 (b) This section does not apply to any matter arising in connection with a 12 recount under s. 9.01.

4 6.26 (2) (b) The municipal clerk, board of election commissioners, or elections

23 class letter with that information, containing a mail registration form under s. 6.30 24 (4). The letter shall be marked in accordance with postal regulations to ensure that 25 it will be returned to the clerk if the elector does not reside at the address given on

1 the postcard. If such letter is returned undelivered, or if the U.S. postal service

21 regulations to ensure that it will be returned to the clerk if the elector does not reside 22 at the address given on the letter. The letter shall inform the person that all 24 within 7 days unless the person contacts the office of the clerk to clarify the matter.

1 A copy of the letter and of any subsequent information received from or about the 2 addressee shall be sent to the district attorney and the board.

3 (5) Whenever any letter or postcard mailed under this section is returned 4 undelivered, or whenever the U.S. postal service notifies the clerk of an improper
