TO ASSEMBLY BILL 688

3 appropriation.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This substitute amendment creates a Wisconsin conservation corps (WCC) program to protect, enhance, and provide access to Wisconsin's natural heritage and encourage and enable young people to learn the value of work in a natural setting by providing employment training and career pathways. The substitute amendment directs the Department of Administration to contract with a nonprofit corporation that has demonstrated experience in grant program administration (manager) to manage and administer the program. The manager then provides grants to organizations that have experience in natural resources conservation to engage, train, and supervise work crews to carry out each project. The substitute amendment requires the manager, to the greatest extent practicable, to ensure that projects are equally distributed across technical college districts and to ensure that at least one project is located in each technical college district in each year.

The substitute amendment provides that a WCC project must be designed to carry out a specific goal within a defined period of time, must be focused on the conservation or enjoyment of natural resources for environmental conservation, and must have a specific, beneficial, and physical effect. The project must also be eligible for AmeriCorps education funding. Environmental conservation projects may include new trail construction, trail rehabilitation, invasive species management, bridge and boardwalk construction, reforestation, timber stand improvement, stream bank stabilization, erosion control, rain garden installation, prairie restoration, historical site preservation, recreation site maintenance, wild land fire hazard reduction and fuels management, lake and stream restoration, boundary marking, fencing, landscaping, disaster preparation or relief, or construction of real property improvements such as gazebos or amphitheaters.

A project may be sited only on public or tribal land in this state. The substitute amendment permits local governments, tribal governments, institutions of higher education, nonprofit corporations, or state agencies to sponsor projects. A project application is then submitted to the manager. The application must identify the proposed project and the sponsor of the project and provide a detailed plan for the work on the project.

The substitute amendment provides that each work crew member on a WCC project must be between the ages of 16 and 25, and at least 50 percent of the work crew members on each project must have no postsecondary education or have a family income of not more than 200 percent of the federal poverty line on the date of their initial engagement.

The substitute amendment provides that, if the manager determines that an application is an appropriate WCC project and that work crew members would be eligible under the program, the manager must submit the application to NCSB for funding. The manager may also submit the application to other organizations to secure funding for the project. The manager may award a grant for the project if the sponsor provides funding for the project in an amount that is at least 50 percent of the amount of the grant. The substitute amendment also limits the administrative costs associated with the grant to 10 percent of the grant amount.

The substitute amendment requires each sponsor, upon completion of the project, to erect a permanent plaque at each work site identifying the site as a WCC project. The substitute amendment also requires the manager to submit an annual report to DOA identifying the number of work crew members who enrolled at a postsecondary institution upon completion of the project and their status on the first anniversary of completion of the project.

Finally, the substitute amendment requires DOA to submit an annual report to the legislature identifying the projects that were completed in each year or that are in the process of completion as of the end of that year. The report must also include the locations of all such projects and the aggregate education and jobs data received from the manager's report.
