- 1     Relating to: administration of elections and election review efforts in Wisconsin.
- 2             Whereas, the ability of American citizens to exercise their right to vote is
- 3     foundational to our representative democracy; and
- 4             Whereas the legitimacy of the American form of government depends on the
- 5     citizens' widespread confidence in the fairness of elections and acceptance of election
- 6     results; and
- 7             Whereas, preserving the integrity of the electoral process is one of our
- 8     government's most important responsibilities; and
- 9             Whereas, the administration of elections in Wisconsin is governed by an
- 10    extensive set of duly enacted laws; and
- 11            Whereas, election administrators, poll workers, and members of the Wisconsin
- 12    National Guard came together in the midst of a global pandemic to conduct a safe,
- 13    secure, and transparent election, dutifully carrying out those laws as written; and
