9 “SECTION 2m. 36.25 (59) of the statutes is created to read:

10 36.25 (59) STUDENT PHYSICAL PRIVACY; LOCKER ROOMS. (a) In this subsection:

11 1. “Biological sex” has the meaning given in sub. (58) (a).

12 2. “Locker room” means an area in a campus building designated for students
13 to change clothes or to be in various stages of undress and to be used by more than 14 one individual student at a time. “Locker room” includes a shower room.

15 (b) 1. The board shall ensure that each locker room located in a campus
16 building is designated for the exclusive use of individuals of one biological sex.

17 2. The board or an institution may establish policies for special events,
18 including athletic events, during which an institution may temporarily redesignate
19 a locker room for exclusive use by the opposite biological sex. Upon the conclusion of 20 the special event, the locker room shall revert to the designation under subd. 1.

21 (c) The board or an institution may allow individuals to enter a locker room
22 that is designated for the exclusive use by the opposite biological sex if the 23 individual is entering the locker room under any of the following circumstances:

1 1. For custodial purposes.

2 2. For maintenance or inspection purposes.

3 3. To provide medical assistance.

4 4. The individual is a member of the faculty, academic staff, or university staff
5 or a police officer or emergency medical services personnel and is performing duties
6 related to the individual's employment.

13 or a drill related to student safety.

14 (d) If a student submits to an institution a written request to receive 15 accommodations from the student being required to use a locker room designated
16 for the exclusive use by one biological sex, the institution shall provide reasonable 17 accommodations to the student, including allowing the student to use a single-
18 occupancy locker room or the regulated use of a staff locker room. An institution
19 shall afford a written request submitted under this paragraph the same privacy
20 protections as other similar student records.

21 (e) Nothing in this subsection prohibits the board or an institution from 22 adopting a policy that is necessary to accommodate individuals protected under the 23 federal Americans with Disabilities Act.”.
