Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Alternatives to prosecution and incarceration programs

Under current law, the Department of Justice operates the alternatives to incarceration grant program and the drug courts grant program under which DOJ provides grants to counties and tribes for providing alternatives to prosecution and incarceration for persons who abuse alcohol or other drugs and diverting substance-abusing persons from prison or jail into treatment.

Under the bill, December 31, 2026, is the last day these DOJ grant programs will be in effect. Beginning on January 1, 2027, the Department of Administration will operate a grant program for tribes to provide alternatives to prosecution and incarceration programs, and counties will be required to operate such programs to be eligible for certain circuit court payments from the Director of State Courts.

Under current law, the Director of State Courts must make payments to counties for certain circuit court costs. Under the bill, beginning on January 1, 2026, the Director of State Courts must make additional payments to circuit courts, including a payment that, beginning January 1, 2027, is available only to counties that operate an alternatives to prosecution and incarceration program.

Alternatives to incarceration grant program position transfers to supreme court

This bill transfers 3.0 FTE GPR positions that administer the alternatives to incarceration grant program, and the incumbent employees holding those positions, from DOJ to the Wisconsin Supreme Court on January 1, 2027.
