Grants for youth services

This bill consolidates certain DCF youth services programs into a new youth services grant program. Under current law, the following DCF programs provide youth services: grants for services for homeless and runaway youth, treatment and services for children who are the victims of sex trafficking, grants for children's community programs, and the Brighter Futures Initiative. Under the bill, these programs are consolidated into the youth services grant program, under which DCF must distribute grants to public agencies, nonprofit corporations, and Indian tribes to provide programs that accomplish one or more of the following purposes:

1. Increasing youth access to housing.
2. Increasing youth self-sufficiency through employment, education, and training.
3. Increasing youth social and emotional health by promoting healthy and stable adult connections, social engagement, and connection with necessary services.
4. Preventing sex trafficking of children and youth.

5. Providing treatment and services for documented and suspected victims of child and youth sex trafficking.

6. Preventing and reducing the incidence of youth violence and other delinquent behavior.

7. Preventing and reducing the incidence of youth alcohol and other drug use and abuse.

8. Preventing and reducing the incidence of child abuse and neglect.

9. Preventing and reducing the incidence of teen pregnancy.

Under current law, DCF must allocate in each fiscal year specific amounts of money, including federal moneys received under the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) block grant program, for various public assistance programs, including $500,000 for the Brighter Futures Initiative for programs to provide evidence-based programs and practices for substance abuse prevention to at-risk youth and their families. Under the bill, this amount is allocated instead to the grants for youth services.

Under current law, DHS transfers amounts to DCF for the Brighter Futures Initiative. Under the bill, DHS transfers those amounts to DCF for the grants for youth services. The bill maintains a requirement, currently under the Brighter Futures Initiative, that DCF distribute $55,000 in each fiscal year to Diverse and Resilient, Inc., to provide youth services, as part of the new youth services grant program.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
