Notice to crime victims upon parole or release to extended supervision

Before a prisoner is released on parole or extended supervision, the parole commission or DOC must notify certain individuals of the pending release, including the victim of the crime or, if the victim died as a result of the crime, an adult member of the victim's family or, if the victim is younger than 18 years old, the victim's parent or legal guardian. This bill provides that, if the victim died as a result of the crime, the parole commission or DOC must also notify any member of the victim's family who was younger than 18 years old at the time the crime was committed but is now 18 years old or older.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
