

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ACT MEMO

2007 Wisconsin Act 8
[2007 Assembly Bill 206]

Persons Under the Legal Drinking
Age at the Wisconsin Renaissance
Faire

2007 Wisconsin Act 8 allows a person who has not reached the legal drinking age to enter and be on the premises of the Wisconsin Renaissance Faire in Chippewa Falls.

Current law prohibits a person who has not reached the legal drinking age, and who is not accompanied by his or her parent, guardian, or spouse who has attained the legal drinking age, from entering or being on any premises for which a license or permit for the retail sale of alcohol beverages has been issued. Current law also provides for various exceptions to this prohibition.

2007 Act 8 creates an exception to this prohibition for the premises of the Wisconsin Renaissance Faire in Chippewa Falls.

Effective Date: 2007 Act 8 takes effect on May 18, 2007.

Prepared by: Scott Grosz, Staff Attorney

May 15, 2007

SG:ksm

This memo provides a brief description of the Act. For more detailed information, consult the text of the law and related legislative documents at the Legislature's Web site at: <http://www.legis.state.wi.us/>.