

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ACT MEMO

2011 Wisconsin Act 66
[2011 Assembly Bill 113]

Boundaries of Marquette and Green Lake Counties

2011 Wisconsin Act 66 changes the boundaries of Marquette and Green Lake Counties to reflect what county officials understand to be the boundaries of these two counties.

The Act provides that any action, proceeding, transaction, conveyance, or other matter which occurred before the effective date of the Act, in Green Lake County or Marquette County, and which related to or would have been impacted by the boundaries of these two counties, is to be considered to have occurred within the boundaries of Green Lake County or Marquette County as the boundaries of the two counties are described in the Act on the effective date of the act.

Effective date: November 24, 2011

Prepared by: Don Salm, Senior Staff Attorney

December 1, 2011

DLS:jb;wu

This memo provides a brief description of the Act. For more detailed information, consult the text of the law and related legislative documents at the Legislature's Web site at: <http://www.legis.state.wi.us/>.