- 2 175.35 (2g) (b) 1. to 9., 175.35 (2g) (bd) and 175.35 (3) (b) of the statutes;
- 3 relating to: providing information to a firearms dealer when purchasing a
- 4 handgun and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a federally licensed firearms dealer may not transfer a handgun to a person following a sale until the person has provided identification to the firearms dealer and has completed a notification form prescribed by the department of justice (DOJ) that requires the person to provide his or her name, date of birth, gender, race and social security number and other identifying information. The firearms dealer must then convey the information from the completed notification form to DOJ so that DOJ can conduct a background check to determine whether the person is prohibited from possessing a firearm. A person completing the notification form must provide truthful information on the form. If a person intentionally provides false information, he or she must be fined not less than $500 nor more than $10,000 and may be imprisoned for not more than nine months.

This bill increases the maximum period of imprisonment that may be imposed on a person who intentionally violates the requirement to provide truthful information on the notification form. Under the bill, a person who intentionally provides false information on the notification form may be imprisoned for not more than five years. The bill does not change the current minimum and maximum fine that may be imposed for providing false information.

The bill also provides that the notification form prescribed by DOJ must require the person completing the notification form to give a "yes" or "no" answer to several questions, including all of the following: 1) a question asking whether the person is purchasing the firearm with the purpose or intent of transferring it to a person who is prohibited from possessing a firearm under state or federal law; 2) questions asking whether the person has been convicted of a felony, found not guilty of or not responsible for a felony by reason of mental disease or defect or adjudicated delinquent for a felony; and 3) questions asking whether the person is subject to certain court orders that prohibit the person from possessing a firearm. Under the bill, the notification form may not require the person to answer questions other than those specified in the bill. In addition, the questions must appear on the notification form exactly as they appear in the bill.

Finally, the bill provides that the form may not require the person to answer any question or statement that is the same as or substantially similar to the following statement: "I am the actual purchaser of this firearm. I am not purchasing the firearm at the request of any other person or on behalf of any other person. I am not purchasing this firearm with the purpose or intent of reselling the firearm to any other person."

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
