2001 ASSEMBLY BILL 762

January 31, 2002 – Introduced by Representatives Kedzie, Krusick, Urban, Owens, Sinicki, Gronemus, Lassa, Seratti, Sykora, Freese, Ryba, Staskunas and Huebsch, cosponsored by Senators Darling, Wirch and Kanavas. Referred to Committee on Small Business and Consumer Affairs.

AN ACT to create 100.305 of the statutes; relating to: sales of consumer goods and services during periods of abnormal economic disruption, requiring the exercise of rule-making authority, and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill prohibits the sale in this state of consumer goods and services at unreasonably excessive prices during a period of abnormal economic disruption caused by an emergency. Under the bill, an emergency includes a destructive act of nature, a hostile action, terrorism, or a disruption of energy supplies that poses a risk to public's economic well-being, public health, or welfare. The prohibition is only in effect if the governor, by executive order, certifies that a period of abnormal economic disruption exists. The bill defines consumer goods and services to be those that are used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes. The prohibition applies to all wholesale and retail sales of consumer goods and services. Under the bill, the department of agriculture, trade and consumer protection (DATCP) must promulgate rules to establish formulas or other standards to be used in determining what are unreasonably excessive wholesale and retail prices.

For an initial violation of this prohibition, the bill requires that DATCP issue a warning notice instead of filing an action against the seller. If the seller fails to comply with the warning notice or subsequently violates the prohibition after receiving the notice, DATCP, or the department of justice (DOJ) after consulting with DATCP, may file a court action to enjoin the seller from violating the prohibition or to recover a forfeiture of not more than $10,000, or DATCP or DOJ may seek both the injunction and the forfeiture.
