

2003 ASSEMBLY BILL 185

March 21, 2003 - Introduced by Representatives GRONEMUS, ALBERS, HAHN, TURNER, KRAWCZYK, BIES and MUSSER, cosponsored by Senators HARSDORF, SCHULTZ and ZIEN. Referred to Committee on Transportation.

1 AN ACT to amend 348.15 (3) (bg), 348.15 (3) (br), 348.15 (3) (bv) and 348.15 (3)
2 (e); and to create 348.15 (3) (f) of the statutes; relating to: permitting vehicles
3 that are hauling agricultural manure to exceed weight limits on certain 4 highways.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, with limited exceptions, no person may operate upon a highway any vehicle or combination of vehicles that exceeds certain statutory weight limits unless that person obtains a permit issued by the Department of Transportation (DOT). One exception allows a vehicle or a combination of vehicles that is transporting exclusively livestock to operate without a permit on certain highways while exceeding the prescribed per-axle weight limit by up to 15%, if the vehicle or combination of vehicles does not exceed the gross weight limit. A vehicle or combination of vehicles that is transporting exclusively livestock may not operate without a permit on Class B highways or on the national system of interstate and defense highways, except for the portion of I 39 between USH 51 and I 90/94.

This bill allows a vehicle or a combination of vehicles that is transporting agricultural manure to operate without a permit on certain highways while exceeding the prescribed per-axle or gross weight limit by up to 10%. The bill does not allow these vehicles to operate without a permit on Class B highways or on the national system of interstate and defense highways, except for the portion of I 39 between USH 51 and I 90/94.

ASSEMBLY BILL 185

Because this bill concerns an exception to the vehicle weight limits specified in ch. 348, stats., DOT, as required by law, will prepare a report to be printed as an appendix to this bill.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
