Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the College Savings Program Board (board) administers a college savings program, commonly referred to as “EdVest,” under which a person may establish and contribute money to a college savings account to cover the college expenses of a beneficiary. As part of EdVest, current law establishes a college savings program trust fund, consisting of all revenue from enrollment fees for and contributions to college savings accounts and from distributions and fees paid by the vendors of those accounts.

This bill establishes a college savings program bank deposit trust fund, consisting of all revenue from enrollment fees for and contributions to college savings accounts in which the investment instrument is an account held by a state or national bank, a state or federal savings bank, a state or federal savings and loan association, or a savings and trust company that has its main or home office or a branch office located in this state and that is insured by the Federal Deposit
