

2005 ASSEMBLY BILL 1172

April 7, 2006 – Introduced by Representatives KRAWCZYK, MUSSER, MURSAU, MCCORMICK, GRONEMUS and ALBERS. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

1 AN ACT to amend 48.57 (3p) (g) 2. and 973.01 (2) (c) 2. a.; and to create 939.642
2 of the statutes; relating to: crimes committed against individuals who are at 3 least 65 years old and providing penalties.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a person who commits a crime under specified circumstances may be subject to penalties that are more severe than those that ordinarily apply to the crime. For example, under the “hate crimes” penalty enhancer, if a person commits a crime contained in chapters 939 to 951 of the Wisconsin Statutes (the Criminal Code) and selects the victim based on the person’s belief or perception regarding the race, religion, color, disability, sexual orientation, national origin, or ancestry of the victim, the maximum penalties for the crime are increased based on how the crime would ordinarily be classified. If the crime is already a felony, the maximum fine is $5,000 more than it would ordinarily be, and the maximum term of imprisonment is five years longer. If the crime is ordinarily a Class A misdemeanor, the maximum term of imprisonment is increased from nine months to two years — as a result of which the crime becomes a felony. (The maximum fine remains $10,000.) If the crime is ordinarily a Class B or Class C misdemeanor, the crime remains a misdemeanor, but the maximum fine is increased to $10,000 and the maximum term of imprisonment is increased to one year in the county jail. (The maximum fines for Class B and Class C misdemeanors are $1,000 and $500, respectively; the maximum terms of imprisonment are 90 days and 30 days, respectively.) Other penalty enhancers (with different penalty increases) apply to certain repeat offenders, to crimes of domestic abuse, to crimes involving dangerous weapons, and to crimes committed in school zones.

This bill creates a new penalty enhancer for crimes committed against an individual who is age 65 or older. The penalty increases provided under this penalty enhancer are the same as those provided under the hate crimes penalty enhancer that are described above and apply only if the underlying crime is one set forth in the Criminal Code.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.
