17 and 2001 Wisconsin Act 109, section 9415 (1zx); relating to: deletion of 18 changes to campaign finance and related laws made by 2001 Wisconsin Act 109.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

2001 Wisconsin Act 109 made comprehensive changes to campaign finance law, ethics, income tax, public broadcasting, and cable television laws. Most changes made by Act 109 took effect on July 1, 2003. With the exception of provisions requiring candidate time on public broadcasting stations and public access channels at public expense, these provisions were made nonseverable so that if a court found that any of the provisions were unconstitutional all of the provisions would then be invalid. In Wisconsin Realtors Association et al. v. Ponto et al., 299 F.Supp.2d 889 (W.D. Wis., 2002), the U.S. District Court found that one provision of Act 109 relating to advance reporting of certain independent disbursements before obligations are incurred to make those disbursements violates the First and Fourteenth amendments. This decision apparently precludes enforcement and administration of the Act 109 changes as of December 11, 2002. The Act 109 changes, however, currently remain in the statutes.

ASSEMBLY BILL 428

This bill deletes the changes described above made by Act 109 that are affected by the nonseverability provision, except that the bill does not affect provisions of the code of ethics for state and local public officials relating to official action in return for providing or withholding things of value, which has been affected by legislation enacted after Act 109, and the bill does not affect provisions that permitted the Elections Board to allocate up to 1 percent of annual amounts designated for the Wisconsin election campaign fund (WECF) to provide public information concerning the purpose and effect of WECF. The following is a description of the changes made by Act 109 to the statutes in effect before July 1, 2003:

Act 109 imposed registration and reporting requirements on certain individuals and committees that finance certain mass communications made during the 60-day period preceding an election. The act also imposed 24-hour reporting requirements on certain special interest committees and on certain candidates for state office who decline to accept public grants from WECF to finance their campaigns. When expenditures or obligations reported by these committees or when expenditures reported by these candidates reach specified levels, the act permitted opposing candidates to receive additional campaign contributions from political parties and other committees and individuals, and to make additional expenditures to respond to the reported expenditures and obligations.

Act 109 made changes to the laws regulating campaign contributions. With certain exceptions, the act prohibited any candidate who accepts a public grant from WECF from accepting contributions from any committee other than a political party committee. The act also permitted candidates for legislative office who are bound by campaign spending and self-contribution limits as a result of accepting a public grant from WECF to accept double the amount of contributions otherwise permitted from particular individuals and, when permitted, from particular committees. The act imposed restrictions on fund raising by incumbents during a legislative session.

Act 109 increased spending limits for candidates for partisan state offices. The act decreased contribution limits for candidates for legislative office who decline to accept spending limits. The act increased the amount that a political party may receive in a biennium from all committees, other than political party committees, from $150,000 to $450,000 and increased the amount that a committee, other than a political party committee, may contribute to a political party in a calendar year from $6,000 to $18,000. The act further permitted political parties to accept an additional $450,000 from all committees in any biennium to be used in providing certain additional campaign contributions to legislative candidates. The act also imposed restrictions on the transfer of contributions between certain committees other than political party committees.

Act 109 increased the amount of campaign expenditures that candidates for state office who accept a public grant from WECF may make. The act provided that the maximum grant under WECF is an amount equal to 40 percent of the applicable spending limit or, for candidates for the office of governor, 35 percent of the applicable expenditure limit. (Prior law permitted a maximum grant of 45 percent of the applicable spending limit, less contributions accepted from special interest committees.) However, the act also provided for supplemental grants to be made to candidates who have reported mass communications or certain noncandidate expenditures made in opposition to them or in support of their opponents. The act provided candidates for the office of justice of the supreme court with a “first draw” on available grant funds. The act established political party accounts under WECF and permitted individuals who have a tax liability to designate on their state income tax returns that money be placed in a political party’s account or in a general account for all qualifying candidates, as permitted previously, and increased the amount of the designation from $1 to $20. Under the act, the designation does not increase an individual’s tax liability.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

13 candidate and the party or principle which he or she represents, if any.

14 (cm) As soon as possible after the canvass of a special primary, or the date that 15 the primary would be held, if required, transmit to the state treasurer a certified list

3 deadline for filing nomination papers by such candidate, or the deadline for filing a 4 declaration of candidacy for an office for which nomination papers are not filed, the 5 name of the candidate may not appear on the ballot. This subsection may not be 6 construed to exempt a candidate from applicable penalties if he or she files a 7 registration statement later than the time prescribed in ss. 11.01 (1) and 11.05 (2g).

19 and does not anticipate accepting any contribution or contributions from a single

ASSEMBLY BILL 428

1 such year. Any registrant making such an indication is not subject to any filing
2 requirement if the statement is true. The registrant need not file a termination 3 report. A registrant not making such an indication on a registration statement is 4 subject to a filing requirement. The indication may be revoked and the registrant 5 is then subject to a filing requirement as of the date of revocation, or the date that 6 aggregate contributions, disbursements or obligations for the calendar year exceed 7 $1,000, or the date on which the registrant accepts any contribution or contributions 8 exceeding $100 from a single source, other than contributions made by a candidate
9 to his or her own campaign, during that year, whichever is earlier. If the revocation 10 is not timely, the registrant violates s. 11.27 (1).

11 SECTION 15. 11.05 (3) (c) of the statutes, as affected by 2001 Wisconsin Act 109,
12 is repealed and recreated to read:

25 is repealed.

ASSEMBLY BILL 428SECTION 19

1 SECTION 19. 11.05 (5) of the statutes, as affected by 2001 Wisconsin Act 109,
2 is repealed and recreated to read:

3 11.05 (5) CHANGE OF INFORMATION. Any change in information previously 4 submitted in a statement of registration shall be reported by the registrant to the 5 appropriate filing officer within 10 days following the change. This period does not 6 apply in case of change of an indication made under sub. (2r), which shall be reported 7 no later than the date that a registrant is subject to a filing requirement under sub.
8 (2r). Any such change may be reported only by the individual or by the officer who 9 has succeeded to the position of an individual who signed the original statement; but 10 in the case of a personal campaign committee, a candidate or campaign treasurer 11 may report a change in the statement except as provided in s. 11.10 (2), and in the 12 case of any other committee or group, the chief executive officer or treasurer
13 indicated on the statement may report a change. If a preexisting support committee 14 is adopted by a candidate as his or her personal campaign committee, the candidate

16 indicating that all information contained in the statement is true, correct and 17 complete.

18 SECTION 20. 11.05 (9) (title) of the statutes, as affected by 2001 Wisconsin Act
19 109, is repealed and recreated to read:

23 11.05 (9) (b) An individual who or a committee or group which receives a 24 contribution of money and transfers the contribution to another individual, 25 committee or group while acting as a conduit is not subject to registration under this

10 disbursement. No committee, group or individual, other than a candidate or agent 11 of a candidate, may accept any contribution or contributions exceeding $25 in the 12 aggregate during a calendar year at any time when the committee, group or 13 individual is not registered under this section except within the initial 5-day period

15 SECTION 23. 11.05 (13) of the statutes, as affected by 2001 Wisconsin Act 109,
16 is repealed and recreated to read:

17 11.05 (13) BANK ACCOUNT AND POSTAL BOX; EXEMPTION. An individual, committee 18 or group does not violate this section by accepting a contribution and making a 19 disbursement in the amount required to rent a postal box, or in the minimum amount 20 required by a bank or trust company to open a checking account, prior to the time of 21 registration, if the disbursement is properly reported on the first report submitted 22 under s. 11.20 after the date that the individual, committee or group is registered, 23 whenever a reporting requirement applies to the registrant.

24 SECTION 24. 11.06 (1) (intro.) of the statutes, as affected by 2001 Wisconsin Act

22 to be reported only if the purpose is to expressly advocate the election or defeat of a 23 clearly identified candidate or the adoption or rejection of a referendum. The 24 exemption provided by this subsection shall in no case be construed to apply to a 25 political party, legislative campaign, personal campaign or support committee.
