2 11.05 (3) (m) and 11.24 (4); and to create 11.25 (4) and 11.60 (3p) of the statutes;
3 relating to: acceptance of certain political contributions by certain elective
4 state officials and committees.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill prohibits any incumbent partisan elective state official or his or her personal campaign or authorized support committee from accepting any political contribution for the purpose of promoting his or her nomination or reelection to the office held by the official during the period from the first Monday in January of each odd-numbered year through the last day of the final general business floorperiod of the legislative session in the following year. The prohibition does not apply to contributions accepted by an incumbent official who is subject to a recall election or by the official's personal campaign or authorized support committee from the date on which the petition for a recall election is filed until the date of the recall election.

Violators are subject to a forfeiture (civil penalty) of treble the amount or value of any unlawful contribution. Intentional violators are guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than six months or both.

Currently, a state or local elective official is generally permitted to use campaign funds raised while he or she holds one office to promote his or her candidacy for another state or local office, or for a national office to the extent permitted by federal law. Currently, subject to certain limitations, an individual who holds a national office may be permitted to use campaign funds raised while he or she holds that office to promote his or her candidacy for a state or local office.

This bill prohibits any state or local elective official, any personal campaign committee of such an official, and any authorized support committee of such an official from making any disbursement (expenditure) for the purpose of promoting the official's candidacy for another state or local office or for a national office prior to the time that the official or committee files or amends a registration statement with the appropriate filing officer or agency indicating that the official or committee is promoting the candidacy of the official for a new office. The bill similarly prohibits any individual who holds a national office, any personal campaign committee of such an individual, or any authorized support committee of such an individual from making a disbursement for the purpose of promoting the official's candidacy for a state or local office from funds or property acquired prior to the time that the official or committee files or amends a registration statement with the appropriate filing officer or agency indicating that the official or committee is promoting the candidacy of the official for a new office.

Violators of the prohibition are subject to a forfeiture (civil penalty) of not more than $500 for each violation. Intentional violators are subject to a fine of not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than three years and six months, or both, if the violation concerns an amount that exceeds $100, or are subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both, if the violation concerns an amount that does not exceed $100.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.
