2009 ASSEMBLY BILL 307

June 8, 2009 – Introduced by Representatives Roys, Schneider, Berceau, Black, A. Ott, Jorgensen, Pope-Roberts, Zepnick, Gunderson and Hintz, cosponsored by Senators Erpenbach, Taylor, Coggs, Hansen and Vinehout. Referred to Committee on Consumer Protection.

 $AN\ ACT$ to repeal 100.52 (10) (b); to renumber and amend 100.52 (10) (a); and to create 100.52 (11) of the statutes; relating to: penalties and private actions for violations of restrictions on telephone solicitations.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law regulates telephone solicitation, defined as the unsolicited initiation of a telephone conversation for the purpose of encouraging the recipient of the telephone call to purchase property, goods, or services. Generally, under current law, a telephone solicitor may not make a telephone solicitation to a residential customer if the customer's telephone number is included in a directory, maintained by the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP), listing residential customers who do not wish to receive telephone solicitations. Violations of current provisions regulating telephone solicitation are subject to a forfeiture of $100.

This bill increases the penalty for a violation to a forfeiture of not less than $1,000 nor more than $10,000. The bill also permits a person who suffers damages as a result of a violation to bring an action for injunctive relief and for actual damages or $500 per violation, whichever is greater.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
