

2013 SENATE BILL 295

September 10, 2013 - Introduced by Senator GROTHMAN, cosponsored by Representative J. OTT. Referred to Committee on Judiciary and Labor.

1 AN ACT to amend 175.35 (2g) (c) 1., 175.35 (2g) (c) 4. (intro.), 175.35 (2j) and 2 175.35 (2k) (ar) 2. of the statutes; relating to: conveyance of information from 3 a firearms dealer to the Department of Justice to request a firearms restrictions
4 record search before transferring a handgun.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a firearms dealer must request the Department of Justice (DOJ) to perform a firearms restrictions record search on a person seeking to purchase a handgun before the dealer may complete the sale. DOJ must promulgate rules for firearms restrictions record searches including a procedure that permits a firearms dealer to use a toll-free telephone number to convey to DOJ the information the purchaser provides on a form such as his or her name, date of birth, and other identification information that permits DOJ to perform an accurate firearms restrictions record search. The dealer must mail a duplicate copy of the form to DOJ so that, if DOJ found nothing in the original search that indicated the person was prohibited from possessing a firearm, DOJ may check the information on the duplicate form against the information DOJ recorded from the telephone call to ensure that nothing on the duplicate form indicates the purchaser is prohibited from possessing a firearm.

Under this bill, the rules DOJ promulgates may allow an alternative means, in addition to the toll-free number provided by DOJ, for a firearms dealer to convey to DOJ the information necessary for a firearms restrictions record search. If the dealer uses the alternative means, the dealer must transmit the notification form to DOJ using a means DOJ provides. This bill also requires DOJ to check the information transmitted against the information DOJ used to conduct the firearms restrictions record search to ensure that nothing in the transmitted information indicates that the purchaser is prohibited from possessing a firearm.
