1     To renumber section 9 of article IV; to amend section 12 (intro.) of article XIII and
2             section 12 (2) of article XIII; and to create section 9 (2) of article IV of the 3             constitution; relating to: recall of elective officers and a code of ethics for 4             government officials (first consideration).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This constitutional amendment, proposed to the 2013 legislature on first consideration, limits the grounds for the recall of an incumbent congressional, judicial, or legislative elective officer or any county elective officer specified in the Wisconsin Constitution (elective officer). Currently, a petition for recall may be filed with the officer who receives the nomination petition to the elective office in the primary (filing officer), and need not demonstrate any grounds for the recall of an elective officer. Under this amendment, an elective officer may be recalled only if he or she has been charged with a serious crime or if a finding of probable cause has been made that he or she violated the state code of ethics.

The amendment further requires the filing officer to determine, before a recall election is scheduled, that the petition for recall demonstrates sufficient grounds for recalling the elective officer.

The amendment also requires the legislature to establish a code of ethics for government officials and a board to administer the code.

A proposed constitutional amendment requires adoption by two successive legislatures, and ratification by the people, before it becomes effective.
