Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2016, this bill adopts, for state income and franchise tax purposes, a provision of the Internal Revenue Code allowing an individual to make a tax-free distribution from his or her individual retirement account directly to a qualified charitable organization, as defined under federal law.

Under federal law, the maximum amount that may be distributed tax-free is 100,000, and the distribution must occur on or after the date on which the individual on whose behalf the IRA is maintained reaches the age of 70 1/2 years.

Because this bill relates to an exemption from state or local taxes, it may be referred to the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions for a report to be printed as an appendix to the bill.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
