Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill expands the process for confirming a foreclosure sale and recording the sheriff's deed for the purchased property that under current law applies only to property located in a county with a population of 750,000 or more (currently only Milwaukee County) to apply to property located anywhere in the state, except that the statewide process provides the clerk of court the option of notifying the register of deeds that a sheriff's deed is available for recording instead of requiring the clerk of court to transmit a sheriff's deed to the register of deeds. This bill also requires that a notice of a foreclosure sale include the street address of the property to be sold at the sale and the sum of the judgment.

Under current law, for foreclosed property located in Milwaukee County, if a sheriff or referee sells the foreclosed property, certain conditions must be satisfied before the court confirms the sale or within ten days of the court confirming the sale. First, before the court confirms the sale, the purchaser must provide the judgment creditor with any information required for the judgment creditor to complete the real estate transfer return required to record the sheriff's deed. After a sheriff or referee makes a sale of foreclosed property and upon compliance with the terms of the sale, the sheriff or referee executes a deed to the purchaser. This deed is commonly known as a sheriff's deed. Second, no later than ten days after the court confirms the sale, the purchaser must pay to the clerk of court the amount of any transfer fee and the amount of any fees required to record the sheriff's deed and any other documents required to record the deed. Third, no later than ten days after the court confirms the sale, the judgment creditor must deliver to the clerk of court the receipt for submitting a transfer return for the property. If the court confirms the sale, the purchaser complies with the terms of the sale, including paying any balance due on the purchase price, and the above-described conditions are satisfied, the clerk of court must transmit the sheriff's deed to the register of deeds for recording.

Under current law, for foreclosed property located outside of Milwaukee County, if the court confirms the sale and the purchaser complies with all of the terms of the sale, including paying any balance due on the purchase price, the clerk of court delivers the sheriff's deed to the purchaser. There is no requirement under current law that the purchaser deliver the sheriff's deed to the register of deeds for recording.
