SENATE BILL 833

1 Administration, the Department of Revenue, and the Office of the State
2 Treasurer and making appropriations.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill transfers the following duties and functions back to the Office of the State Treasurer (state treasurer) after having been transferred from that office at various times, as indicated below:

1. Cash management functions. In 2003 Wisconsin Act 33, the state's cash management functions and related duties were transferred from the state treasurer to the Department of Administration. This bill transfers those functions and related duties back to the state treasurer.

2. Local government investment pool. The local government pooled-investment fund (fund) consists of moneys placed in the state investment fund by local governmental units. 2011 Wisconsin Act 32 transferred the state treasurer's duties relating to the fund, including prescribing the mechanisms and procedures for deposits and withdrawals into and from the fund, to DOA. This bill transfers those duties back to the state treasurer.

3. Unclaimed property program. 2013 Wisconsin Act 20 transferred the state's unclaimed property program from the state treasurer to the Department of Revenue. This bill transfers the program back to the state treasurer.

4. College savings programs. 2011 Wisconsin Act 32 attached the College Savings Program Board, which had previously been attached to the state treasurer, to DOA. That board administers the EdVest program, which is a college savings plan established to enable families to contribute moneys to accounts for the college expenses of dependents. This bill reattaches the College Savings Program Board to the state treasurer and requires the state treasurer to administer the state's other college savings program, which was also transferred from the state treasurer to DOA under 2011 Wisconsin Act 32.

5. Administrative services. The bill transfers to the state treasurer the duty to provide administrative services to the Board of Commissioners of Public Lands. Currently, DOA provides those services, but the state treasurer had previously done so.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
