Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates a sentence adjustment procedure for a “youthful offender,” defined under the bill as a person who committed a crime before he or she turned 18 years old. This bill also prohibits a court from sentencing a youthful offender to life imprisonment without the possibility of parole or release to extended supervision, and creates new mitigating factors in the sentencing criteria when sentencing a youthful offender. Finally, this bill eliminates statutory mandatory life sentences without parole for youthful offenders in order to align with federal constitutional law.

Under current law, an inmate can petition to reduce the confinement portion of his or her bifurcated sentence after serving a certain proportion of the sentence. An inmate who is serving a life sentence can petition to be released to extended supervision or parole after serving at least 20 years of his or her sentence or after another date set by the sentencing court. This bill creates a new procedure for a youthful offender, including a youthful offender who is serving a life sentence, to receive a sentence adjustment after serving 15 years of his or her sentence. Under the bill, one year before the inmate is eligible to petition for the sentence adjustment, the Department of Corrections is required to notify the youthful offender of his or her eligibility. The court may reduce the term of imprisonment for the youthful offender and may modify the conditions of parole or extended supervision if the court determines that the interests of justice warrant a reduction, taking into account the factors enumerated in the bill. If the court denies the petition under the bill, the youthful offender may petition again every five years, up to five times. Under the bill, DOC is required to send a notice to all youthful offenders who have served at least 14 years of their sentences within six months after the bill takes effect.

Under current law, when a court makes a sentencing decision, it must consider certain guidelines, including whether there were any aggravating factors present. Under this bill, when a court is sentencing a youthful offender, it must also consider mitigating factors related to the age and maturity of the youthful offender. These sentencing guidelines for youthful offenders take effect retroactively under the bill, meaning that they apply to any conviction for which sentencing has already occurred.

Under current law, if a person is convicted of a serious felony on three separate occasions or a serious child sex offense on two separate occasions, the person is subject to a mandatory life sentence without the possibility of parole or extended supervision. However, in Miller v. Alabama, 567 U.S. 460 (2012), the U.S. Supreme Court held that imposing a mandatory life sentence without parole for a juvenile constitutes cruel and unusual punishment and therefore violates the eighth amendment of the Constitution. This bill clarifies that the statutory mandatory sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of parole or extended supervision for repeat offenders does not apply to youthful offenders. This bill also prohibits a court from imposing a life sentence without the possibility of parole or extended supervision for a youthful offender. These changes to sentencing also apply retroactively under the bill.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

11 secondary to the goal of rehabilitation when sentencing youthful offenders.

12 3. That unless the state proves beyond a reasonable doubt that the youthful

9 imprisonment, including life imprisonment under s. 973.014 (3), for a youthful

12 court shall consider all of the following:

13 (a) The sentencing factors set forth in ss. 973.014 (3) (e) and 973.017 (2c).

14 (b) The youthful offender’s subsequent growth, behavior, and rehabilitation
15 while incarcerated.

16 (3) PETITION FOR SENTENCE ADJUSTMENT. (a) One year before the youthful 17 offender becomes eligible for a sentence adjustment under this section, the 18 department shall provide written notice of the eligibility to the qualifying youthful

20 youthful offender was sentenced, and the state public defender. Notice under this 21 paragraph shall include notice of the youthful offender’s right to counsel and notice
22 that if the youthful offender believes that he or she cannot afford an attorney, the 23 youthful offender may ask the state public defender to represent him or her.

SENATE BILL 815

1 (b) A youthful offender has a right to counsel in the sentence adjustment
2 proceedings under this section. The right to counsel begins at the service of notice
3 under par. (a).

4 (c) After service of notice under par. (a) and upon request by the youthful 5 offender or the youthful offender's attorney, the court shall make documents from the 6 sentencing hearing available to the youthful offender or his or her attorney, including 7 the presentence investigation report in accordance with s. 972.15 (4m) and the 8 transcript from the sentencing hearing.

9 (d) A qualifying youthful offender may file a petition for a sentence adjustment
10 under this section. The petitioner shall file the petition and any affidavits and other 11 written support for the petition in the sentencing court no more than 90 days before
12 the youthful offender's eligibility date. A copy of the petition shall be served on the 13 district attorney in the county in which the youthful offender was sentenced.

14 (e) Upon receipt of a petition under par. (d), the district attorney shall notify 15 any victims of the crime in accordance with s. 950.04 (1v) (gm).

16 (4) HEARING. (a) The court shall hold a hearing within 120 days of a petition
17 filed under sub. (3) (d), unless all parties agree to an extension for the hearing date.

18 (b) The court shall consider relevant information, including expert testimony
19 and other information about the youthful offender's participation in any available
20 educational, vocational, volunteer, community service, or other programs, the 21 youthful offender's work reports and psychological evaluations, and the youthful 22 offender's major violations of institutional rules, if any.

23 (c) The youthful offender has the right to attend the hearing, the right to be

25 witnesses.

SENATE BILL 815*SECTION 19

1 (d) The victim shall be given the opportunity to provide a statement concerning
2 sentencing in accordance with s. 950.04 (1v) (m).

3 (e) A hearing under this subsection shall be recorded.

4 (f) The decision of the court on a petition under sub. (3) is a final adjudication
5 subject to appeal under s. 809.30.

6 (5) ORDER. If the court finds that the interests of justice warrant a sentence
7 adjustment, the court may amend the judgment of conviction according to one of the 8 following:

9 (a) If the youthful offender is serving a sentence for a crime committed before
10 December 31, 1999, reduce the parole eligibility date and modify the conditions of 12 of parole supervision after release from prison.

13 (b) Upon request by the youthful offender, for a crime committed before
14 December 31, 1999, convert an indeterminate sentence to a bifurcated sentence
15 under s. 973.01 or 973.014 (1g). If the court converts the indeterminate sentence to 16 a bifurcated sentence, the court shall set a date for release to extended supervision

18 may also modify the conditions of parole or extended supervision.

19 (c) For a crime committed on or after December 31, 1999, reduce the term of 20 confinement in prison and modify the conditions of extended supervision. The court

5 petition under sub. (3) no earlier than 5 years after a hearing is held under sub. (4),
6 unless the court sets an earlier date. A youthful offender may file no more than 5
7 petitions under sub. (3) during his or her sentence.

8 (7) SENTENCE MODIFICATION ON OTHER GROUNDS. Nothing in this section limits
