Analysis by the Legislative Reference BureauSummary

This bill recognizes same-sex marriage by making references in the statutes to spouses gender-neutral, with the intent of harmonizing the Wisconsin Statutes with the holding of the U.S. Supreme Court in Obergefell v. Hodges, 135 S. Ct. 2584, 192 L. Ed. 2d 609 (2015), which recognizes that same-sex couples have a fundamental constitutional right to marriage. The bill also recognizes legal parentage for same-sex couples under certain circumstances and adopts gender-neutral parentage terminology.

Same-sex marriage

The bill provides that marriage may be contracted between persons of the same sex and confers the same rights and responsibilities on married persons of the same sex that married persons of different sexes have under current law. The bill defines “spouse” as a person who is legally married to another person of the same sex or a different sex and replaces every reference to “husband” or “wife” in current law with “spouse.” The bill makes applicable to married persons of the same sex all provisions under current law that apply to married persons of different sexes. These provisions relate to such diverse areas of the law as income tax, marital property, inheritance rights, divorce, child and spousal support, insurance coverage, family and spousal recreational licenses, consent to conduct an autopsy, domestic abuse, and eligibility for various types of benefits, such as retirement or death benefits and medical assistance.

Parentage

In addition to making statutory references to spouses gender-neutral, the bill specifies ways in which couples of the same sex may be the legal parents of a child, recognizes that a transgender person may become pregnant and give birth to a child, and makes current references in the statutes to “mother” and “father,” and related terms, gender-neutral.

Under current law, all of the following may adopt a child: a husband and wife jointly, a husband or wife whose spouse is the parent of the child, and an unmarried adult. Because the bill makes references in the statutes to spouses gender-neutral, same-sex spouses jointly may adopt a child and become the legal parents of the child, and a same-sex spouse of a person who is the parent of a minor child may adopt the child and become the legal parent of his or her spouse’s child.

Under current law, if a woman is artificially inseminated under the supervision of a physician with semen donated by a man who is not her husband and the husband consents in writing to the artificial insemination of his wife, the husband is the natural father of any child conceived. Under the bill, one spouse may also consent to the artificial insemination of his or her spouse and is the natural parent of the child conceived. The artificial insemination is not required to take place under the supervision of a physician, but, if it does not, the semen used for the insemination must have been obtained from a sperm bank.

Under current law, a man is presumed to be the father of a child if he and the child’s natural mother 1) were married to each other when the child was conceived or born or 2) married each other after the child was born but had a relationship with each other when the child was conceived and no other man has been adjudicated to be the father or is presumed to be the father because the man was married to the mother when the child was conceived or born. The paternity presumption may be rebutted in a legal action or proceeding by the results of a genetic test showing that the statistical probability of another man’s parentage is 99.0 percent or higher. The bill expands this presumption into a parentage presumption, so that a person is presumed to be the natural parent of a child if he or she 1) was married to the person who gave birth to the child when the child was conceived or born or 2) married the person who gave birth to the child after the child was born but had a relationship with the person who gave birth to the child when the child was conceived and no person has been adjudicated to be the child’s parent and no other person is presumed to be the child's parent because he or she was married, at the time the child was born, to the person who gave birth to the child. The parentage presumption may still be rebutted by the results of a genetic test showing that the statistical probability of another person's parentage is 99.0 percent or higher. Expanding on current law, the bill allows for a parentage action to be brought for the purpose of rebutting the parentage presumption, regardless of whether that presumption applies to a male or female spouse.

Current law provides that a mother and a man may sign a statement acknowledging paternity and file it with the state registrar. If the state registrar has received such a statement, the man is presumed to be the father of the child. Under current law, either person who has signed a statement acknowledging paternity may rescind the statement before an order is filed in an action affecting the family concerning the child or within 60 days after the statement is filed, whichever occurs first. Under current law, a man who has filed a statement acknowledging paternity that is not rescinded within the time period is conclusively determined to be the father of the child. The bill provides that two people, one of whom gave birth to the child, may sign a statement acknowledging parentage and file it with the state registrar. If the state registrar has received such a statement, the people who have signed the statement are presumed to be the parents of the child. Under the bill, a statement acknowledging parentage that is not rescinded conclusively establishes parentage with regard to the person who did not give birth to the child and who signed the statement.

Under current law, the paternity of a child may be established by genetic testing in an administrative determination of paternity or in a paternity action in court. The bill changes the term "paternity" to "parentage" in the context of establishing the parent of a child by genetic testing.

The bill defines "natural parent" as a parent of a child who is not an adoptive parent, whether the parent is biologically related to the child or not. Thus, a person who is a biological parent, a parent by consenting to the artificial insemination of his or her spouse, or a parent under the parentage presumption is a natural parent of a child. The definition applies throughout the statutes wherever the term "natural parent" is used. In addition, the bill expands some references in the statutes to "biological parent" by changing the reference to "natural parent."

Birth certificates

Generally, the bill substitutes the term "spouse" for "husband" in the birth certificate statutes and enters the spouse, instead of the husband, of the person who has given birth on the birth certificate at times when a husband would currently be entered on a birth certificate. The name of the person who has given birth is entered on a birth certificate when the person gives birth to a child, and current law specifies when another name should be entered on the birth certificate. Current law requires that if a birth mother is married at any time from the conception to the birth of a child, then her husband's name is entered on the birth certificate as the legal father of the child. Under the bill, if a person who gives birth is married at any time from the conception to the birth of the child, then that person's spouse's name is entered as a legal parent of the child. The bill also specifies that, in the instance that a second parent's name is initially omitted from the birth certificate, if the state registrar receives a signed acknowledgement of parentage by people presumed to be parents because the two people married after the birth of the child, the two people had a relationship during the time the child was conceived, no person is adjudicated to be the father, and no other person is presumed to be the parent, then the state registrar must enter the name of the spouse of the person who gave birth as a parent on the birth certificate.

ASSEMBLY BILL 314*SECTION 1

Because this bill relates to an exemption from state or local taxes, it may be referred to the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions for a report to be printed as an appendix to the bill.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

8 established by those parties with the right of survivorship under s. 766.58 (3) (f) or 9 766.60 is a joint account.

10 SECTION 214. 706.09 (1) (e) of the statutes is amended to read:

9 SECTION 218. 765.001 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

10 765.001 (2) INTENT. It is the intent of chs. 765 to 768 to promote the stability
11 and best interests of marriage and the family. It is the intent of the legislature to 12 recognize the valuable contributions of both spouses during the marriage and at 13 termination of the marriage by dissolution or death. Marriage is the institution
14 that is the foundation of the family and of society. Its stability is basic to morality
15 and civilization, and of vital interest to society and the state. The consequences of 16 the marriage contract are more significant to society than those of other contracts, 17 and the public interest must be taken into account always. The seriousness of 18 marriage makes adequate premarital counseling and education for family living 19 highly desirable and courses thereon are urged upon all persons contemplating
20 marriage. The impairment or dissolution of the marriage relation generally results
21 in injury to the public wholly apart from the effect upon the parties immediately
22 concerned. Under the laws of this state, marriage is a legal relationship between 2
23 equal persons, ~~a husband and wife~~, who owe to each other mutual responsibility

5 subsection.

6 SECTION 219. 765.01 of the statutes is amended to read:

7 765.01 A civil contract. Marriage, so far as its validity at law is concerned,
8 is a civil contract, to which the consent of the parties capable in law of contracting
9 is essential, and which creates the legal status of ~~husband and wife~~ spouse to each 10 other.

11 SECTION 220. 765.02 (3) of the statutes is created to read:

12 765.02 (3) Marriage may be contracted between persons of the same sex or

19 application for a marriage license, submits an affidavit signed by a physician
20 stating that either party is permanently sterile or that the 2 parties are otherwise
21 permanently biologically incapable of producing a child together. Relationship
22 under this section shall be computed by the rule of the civil law, whether the parties

5 if there is no prohibition against or legal objection to the marriage, the county clerk
6 shall issue a marriage license. With each marriage license the county clerk shall 11 765.16 (1m) (intro.) Marriage may be validly solemnized and contracted in

3 SECTION 225. 765.23 of the statutes is amended to read:

4 765.23 Immaterial irregularities otherwise. No marriage hereafter
5 contracted shall be void either by reason of the marriage license having been issued 6 by a county clerk not having jurisdiction to issue the same; or by reason of any 7 informality or irregularity of form in the application for the marriage license or in 8 the marriage license itself, or the incompetency of the witnesses to such marriage; 9 or because the marriage may have been solemnized more than 60 days after the 10 date of the marriage license, if the marriage is in other respects lawful and is 11 consummated with the full belief on the part of the persons so married, or either of 12 them, that they have been lawfully joined in marriage. Where a marriage has been

11          767.805 (4) (d) 1. An order establishing the amount of ~~the father's~~ the 12 adjudicated parent's obligation to pay or contribute to the reasonable expenses of 13 the ~~mother's~~ pregnancy and ~~the child's birth~~ childbirth. The amount established 14 may not exceed one-half of the total actual and reasonable pregnancy and birth
15 expenses. The order also shall specify the court's findings as to whether the 16 ~~father's~~ adjudicated parent's income is at or below the poverty line established 17 under 42 USC 9902 (2), and shall specify whether periodic payments are due on the 18 obligation, based on the ~~father's~~ adjudicated parent's ability to pay or contribute to 19 those expenses.

20          2. If the order does not require periodic payments because the ~~father~~ 21 adjudicated parent has no present ability to pay or contribute to the expenses, the 22 court may modify the judgment or order at a later date to require periodic payments
23 if the ~~father~~ adjudicated parent has the ability to pay at that time.

SECTION 261

1           SECTION 261. 767.813 (5g) of the statutes is amended to read:

2           767.813 (5g) NOTICE. The notice to parties shall be attached to the summons.

3           The notice shall be in boldface type and in substantially the following form:

4                               NOTICE TO PARTIES

5           1. You are a party to a petition for ~~paternity~~ parentage. A judgment of 6           ~~paternity~~ parentage legally designates the child in the case to be a child of the ~~man~~
7           person found to be the ~~father~~ parent. It creates a legally recognized parent-child
8           relationship between the ~~man~~ person and the child. It creates the right of 9           inheritance for the child, and obligates the ~~man~~ person to support the child until 10          the child reaches the age of 18, or the age of 19 if the child is enrolled full-time in 11          high school or its equivalent. The failure by either parent to pay court-ordered 12          support is punishable by imprisonment as a contempt of court or as a criminal 13          violation.

14          2. A party to a ~~paternity~~ parentage case has the right to be represented by an 15          attorney. If you are unable to afford an attorney and you are a ~~man~~ person who is 16          named as the ~~possible father~~ alleged parent of a child in a ~~paternity~~ parentage case,
17          the court will appoint an attorney for you only if the results of one or more genetic 18          tests show that you are not excluded as the ~~father~~ parent and that the statistical 19          probability of your being the ~~father~~ parent is less than 99.0 percent. In order to 20          determine whether you are entitled to have an attorney appointed for you, you may 21          call the following telephone number .... .

22          3. The petitioner in this case has the burden of proving by a clear and 23          satisfactory preponderance of the evidence whether the ~~man~~ person named as the

SECTION 261

1 ~~possible father~~ alleged parent is the ~~father~~ parent. However, if genetic tests show
2 that the ~~man~~ person named is not excluded as the ~~father~~ parent, and show that the 3 statistical probability that the ~~man~~ person is the ~~father~~ parent is 99.0 percent or 4 higher, that ~~man~~ person is rebuttably presumed to be the ~~father~~ parent.

5 4. You may request genetic tests which will indicate the probability that the 6 ~~man~~ person named as the ~~possible father~~ alleged parent is or is not the ~~father~~
7 parent of the child. The court will order genetic tests on a request by you, the state,
8 or any other party. Any person who refuses to take court-ordered genetic tests may 9 be punished for contempt of court.

10 5. The following defenses are available in a paternity parentage case:

11 (a) The ~~man~~ person named as ~~a possible father~~ an alleged parent of the child
12 may claim that ~~he~~ the person was sterile or impotent at the time of conception.

13 (b) ~~The mother may claim that she, or the man named as a possible father~~
14 parent or the alleged parent may claim that ~~he, the parent and alleged parent~~ did 15 not have sexual intercourse with ~~the~~ each other ~~party~~ during the conceptive period 16 (generally the period 8 to 10 months before the birth of the child).

17 (c) ~~The mother or the man named as a possible father~~ parent or alleged parent
18 may claim that another ~~man~~ person had sexual intercourse with the ~~mother~~ parent 19 during the conceptive period.

20 6. You have the right to request a jury trial on the issue of whether the named 21 ~~man~~ alleged parent is the ~~father~~ parent.

22 7. If you fail to appear at any stage of the proceeding, including a scheduled

1 court-ordered genetic test, the court may enter a default judgment finding the ~~man~~
2 ~~claimed to be the father~~ named alleged parent as the ~~father~~ parent.

3 8. You must keep the clerk of court and child support agency informed of your 4 current address at all times.

5 SECTION 262. 767.815 (2) (a) and (b) of the statutes are amended to read:

6 767.815 (2) (a) There are reasonable grounds to believe that before the time
7 for service under s. 801.02 (1) or sub. (1) expired the respondent knew ~~that the~~ 8 ~~mother was pregnant~~ about the pregnancy and that the respondent may be the 9 ~~father~~ parent.

10 (b) Due diligence was exercised in attempting to serve the respondent, before 11 ~~he~~ the respondent was actually served.

12 SECTION 263. 767.82 (2m) and (4) of the statutes are amended to read:

13 767.82 (2m) CUSTODY PENDING COURT ORDER. If there is no presumption of 14 ~~paternity~~ parentage under s. 891.41 (1) or if ~~paternity~~ parentage is conclusively
15 determined from genetic test results under s. 767.804 (1) or acknowledged under s.
16 767.805 (1), the ~~mother~~ parent who gave birth shall have sole legal custody of the 17 child until the court orders otherwise.

18 (4) DISCOVERY. Discovery shall be conducted as provided in ch. 804, except 19 that no discovery may be obtained later than 30 days before the trial. No discovery

21 gave birth occurring at any time other than the probable time of conception.

4 attorney as provided in s. 767.80 (6), or the action is commenced on behalf of the 5 child by an attorney appointed under s. 767.407 (1) (c), counsel shall be appointed

9 SECTION 265. 767.84 (1) (a) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

10 767.84 (1) (a) (intro.) Except as provided in ss. 767.855 and 767.863, and 11 except in actions to which s. 767.893 applies, the court shall require ~~the~~ all of the 12 following to submit to genetic tests:

13 1m. The child, ~~mother, any male.~~

14 3m. Any person for whom there is probable cause to believe that ~~he had the~~ 15 person's sexual intercourse with the ~~mother during a possible time of the person~~
16 who gave birth to the child may have resulted in the child's conception, or any male.

19 person who gave birth to the child that may have resulted in conception of the child.

20 (ac) Probable cause of sexual intercourse ~~during a possible time of that may~~ 21 have resulted in conception of the child for the purposes of par. (a) may be 22 established by a sufficient petition or affidavit of the ~~child's mother~~ person who

10 and amended to read:

11 767.84 (1) (am) 3. a. Except as provided in subd. 3. b., a ~~male~~ respondent who 12 fails to appear, if genetic test results with respect to another ~~man~~ person, other than

1 certified by the court-appointed expert stating genetic test results and the 2 statistical probability of the alleged ~~father's paternity~~ parent's parentage based 3 upon the genetic tests is admissible as evidence without expert testimony and may 4 be entered into the record at the trial or pretrial hearing if all of the following apply:

5 2. At least 10 days before the trial or pretrial hearing, the department or 6 county child support agency under s. 59.53 (5) notifies the alleged ~~father~~ parent of 7 the results of the genetic tests and that ~~he~~ the alleged parent may object to the test
8 results by submitting an objection in writing to the court no later than the day

10 SECTION 270. 767.84 (4) of the statutes is amended to read:

11 767.84 (4) TESTS EXCLUDING ~~PATERNITY~~ PARENTAGE; REFUSAL TO SUBMIT TO 12 TEST. Genetic test results excluding an alleged ~~father~~ parent as the ~~father~~ parent of 13 the child are conclusive evidence ~~of nonpaternity~~ that the alleged parent is not the 14 parent of the child and the court shall dismiss any ~~paternity~~ parentage action with 15 respect to that alleged ~~father~~ parent. Genetic test results excluding any ~~male~~
16 witness from possible ~~paternity~~ parentage are conclusive evidence ~~of nonpaternity~~
17 ~~of the male~~ that the witness is not the parent of the child. Testimony relating to 18 sexual intercourse or possible sexual intercourse ~~of the mother with~~ between the

7 with the ~~mother at any possible time of~~ person who gave birth to the child that may 8 have resulted in conception of the child shall provide all other parties with the 9 name and address of the witness 20 days before the trial or pretrial hearing. If a 10 ~~male~~ witness is produced at the hearing for the purpose stated in this subsection 11 but the party calling the witness failed to provide the 20-day notice, the court may 13 to hearing the testimony of the witness if the court finds that the party calling the

3 (2) LEGISLATIVE INTENT. The legislature intends this act to harmonize the 4 language of the Wisconsin statutes relating to marriage and the determination of 5 parentage with the provision of s. 990.001 (2), which specifies that words importing 6 one gender extend and may be applied to any gender. The legislature intends that 7 by amending the statutes relating to marriage and the determination of parentage
8 with respect to married couples to use gender-neutral language where appropriate 9 so as to clarify that the same statutory rights and responsibilities apply between 10 married persons of the same sex as between married persons of different sexes and 11 to extend some of the presumptions of parentage to either parent, the Wisconsin 12 statutes will be better aligned with the holding of the U.S. Supreme Court in 13 Obergefell v. Hodges, 135 S. Ct. 2584, 192 L. Ed. 2d 609 (2015), which recognizes 14 that same-sex couples have a fundamental constitutional right to marriage. To the 15 extent language remains in Wisconsin law referring to one gender after the effective
16 date of this subsection, the rule of construction regarding gender under s. 990.001
17 (2) remains applicable, and it is not the intent of the legislature, except to the extent 18 necessary to conform to the requirements of federal law, to narrow to one gender the 19 construction of any provision for which an application to any gender would be 20 appropriate.
