6 Committee on Legislative Organization, and was on the Council on Criminal 7 Justice, the Interstate Cooperation Commission, and the Legislative Council 8 Special Committee on Liability of Health Professionals; and

9 Whereas, Terry Willkom, in 1975, highlighted that the most challenging 10 aspect of being a legislator was managing an ever-increasing workload while also 11 struggling with time away from his young family, becoming the first known 12 legislator in Wisconsin history to move his family to Madison during the school 13 week, with the family returning to his district on the weekends; and 14 Whereas, Terry Willkom, in addition to his career in the assembly, held many 15 positions throughout his life, including as a pinsetter at Boney's Bowling Alley in 16 Boyd for 10 cents an hour in his youth, a researcher at 3M in Minneapolis in 1963, 17 a business manager at St. Joseph's Hospital in Chippewa Falls in 1968, the deputy 18 secretary of health and social services from 1977 to 1981, the director of the 19 Northern Center for the Developmentally Disabled from 1984 to 1989, the vice 20 president of the Chippewa Falls Area Unified School Board from 1989 to 1990, the 21 acting president of Rex Systems from 1989 to 1990, the president and COO of Cray

22 Computer in Colorado Springs, Colorado, in 1990, and the director of the Wisconsin 23 Innovation Network in 2001; and

24 Whereas, Terry Willkom enjoyed tennis, fishing, ice fishing, hunting,

1 genealogy, raising and showing Irish Setters, and equestrian activities with his 2 treasured horse, Cinco; and

3 Whereas, Terry Willkom was a loving husband to Sharon for nine years and to 4 his second wife, Susan, for 43 years. He was a devoted father to his children, Mary
5 Catherine, Michelle, and Allen, and to his stepchildren, Jill and Jay. He was also a 6 proud grandfather to Christopher and Lu and to his step-grandchildren, Flint, 7 Jack, and Annabelle, and was an adoring godfather to Molly; and

8 Whereas, Terry Willkom will be remembered for honesty, integrity, and ability 9 to work with both sides of the aisle; now, therefore, be it

10 Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the members of 11 the Wisconsin Legislature honor the life and public service of Representative 12 Terrence A. “Terry” Willkom and extend their condolences to his family and
